In the matter of an industrial dispute existing between Messrs. B. S. Engineering Corporation & Auto-Welders & Engineers' Workers' Union, 86A Lower Circular Road, Calcutta-14. (Case No. VIII-46/62.)

BEFORE THE SECOND INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL
WEST BENGAL

Present:

Shri P. C. PAL, Judge, Second Industrial Tribunal, West Bengal.

For the Company: Shri Kamaksha Guha, Advocate.

For the Union: Shri M. Saha, Advocate and Vice-President of the Union, and Shri Hiralal Roy, Advocate.

This is a reference under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, by the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, Order No. 586-I.R./IR/10L-145(A)/61, dated 20th February 1962, for adjudication upon the issue—

"1. If the dismissal of Sarvashri Joy Gopal Talukdar and Uday Kumar Das is justified? To what relief, if any, are they entitled?"

The case of the Union, as made out in its written statement, is briefly this:

The Union was formed in the last part of 1957 for collective bargaining and resisting the capricious action of the Company. This news infuriated the management which started victimising its workers in various ways. Shri Joygopal Talukdar and Uday Kumar Das were permanent workers of the Company and active members of the Union, the latter being the Assistant Secretary of the Union. Joygopal was on medical leave from 7th March 1960 to 14th March 1960. On 15th March 1960 he went to the Company's factory to resume his duties, but was not allowed to work on that day, and was asked to come on the following day. He went there on 16th March 1960 when Shri Dinesh Chandra Saha, the head of the Company, got infuriated and abused him, and with the help of Durwan and others forced him out of the factory premises causing physical injury to him. Joygopal informed the police. Next, the Company with a mala fide motive issued an unsigned charge-sheet against him on 17th March 1960 making false and malicious allegations with a view to shield their own guilt, and victimising him. This worker submitted written explanation on 21st March 1960 denying the allegations and pleading innocence. The Company gave notice for a domestic enquiry. In apprehension of further physical assault this worker requested the Company to allow the Union Secretary to be present during the enquiry stage as a measure of guarantee of personal security and fair deal. Instead of giving reply to his request, the Company held an ex-parte enquiry and dismissed him with effect from 17th March 1960. On 13th August 1960 (Saturday) the concerned workman named Uday Kumar Das left the factory at 1 p.m. with other workers after finishing their duties. On 16th September 1960, when he went to resume his duty as usual, he was not allowed to do work and was given a charge-sheet containing false allegations. Uday Kumar submitted his written reply denying the allegations and asserting his innocence. On 23rd September 1960 the Company held a pretended inquiry without allowing Shri Das to cross-examine any witnesses or examine his own witnesses. The Company withheld the findings of the enquiry for three months and on receipt of the Union's letter, dated 22nd November 1960, dismissed Shri Das. The actions of the Company in dismissing these two concerned workmen were illegal, mala fide, by way of victimisation and against the principle of natural justice. The dismissals of these two workers are quite illegal and unjustified and they are entitled to reinstatement with full back wages and continuity of service.

The Company's averments made in its written statement are as follows:

The present dispute is not an industrial dispute and this Tribunal has no jurisdiction to adjudicate upon the same. The story of the management's being capricious or the like is untrue. The Company is not aware as to whether the two concerned workmen were active members of the Union. Joygopal Talukdar was present on duty on 7th March 1960 and started absenting himself from 8th March 1960 without any notice or without supplying his whereabouts. He was an office-boy and used to lodge with the proprietors and took food there. For some time prior to the incident in question, he developed defying attitude towards his superiors. On 5th March 1960 he handed over to the Secretary of the Company, Shri C. R Chakravorty, a letter of his resignation which the Secretary kept in an office almirah. Joygopal was a trusted man and he had always access to the office files. On 7th March 1960 the Secretary found the said resignation letter missing and asked Joygopal as to where that resignation letter was. At this Joygopal became furious and used abusive and insulting language to the Secretary, and thereafter he left the factory premises never to come back. The Secretary grew suspicious and searched the office almirah and found some important files missing. As Shri D. C. Saha, who holds a very important position in the administration, was away in Delhi at that time, the Secretary kept the matter pending as Joygopal was trusted by Shri Saha. On 16th March 1960 Shri Saha returned from Delhi and was informed of the matter. The matter was reported to the police on 17th March 1960 and a charge-sheet was issued against Joygopal on that date. This charge-sheet was sent by post to Joygopal at his residence. He submitted a written explanation and he was next intimated about the date of enquiry. He failed to attend the enquiry which was, accordingly, held ex-parte. By that enquiry the charges levelled against him were established and the Company dismissed him on ground of gross misconduct. On 13th August 1960 which was a "Pay Day" Shri Naresh Saha, in-charge of the Accounts and Cash Department, was making disbursements. As there was some shortage of funds, Shri Saha requested every worker to accept less payment on that very day. Everybody was accepting short payments. When Uday was requested to accept some less payment, he took Rs. 4 less reluctantly, and said "I would see next time". At this Shri Saha told him that on a previous occasion he was given an advance of Rs. 40 which he repaid after a long time, and so he should not be so much ungrateful as to forget the past occasion. At this Shri Das got furious and abused Shri Saha by saying repeatedly "Don't speak like a chhotoloke". On Shri Saha's protest Shri Das repeated the same filthy languages again and again. Next Shri Das was charge-sheeted. On receipt of his written explanation the management held an enquiry on 23rd September 1960 in his presence, full opportunities being given to him to defend himself by cross-examining the Company's witnesses and adducing his own evidence. By that enquiry also Shri Das was found guilty of misconduct and was dismissed therefor. The allegations of the Company's action being mala fide, etc., are quite untrue. For these reasons, this reference is liable to be rejected.

Decision

Re: Joygopal Talukdar

The charge against this workman, who was an office-bearer of the Company, is this:

> "That on 7th March 1960, you used abusive and insulting language to Shri C. R. Chakravarti, the Secretary of the Company, and started absenting yourself without notice. It is now found out that you had stolen some important and confidential files as shown in the schedule below from the office. This is not only a serious gross misconduct for which you are liable to be dismissed, but the Company has also lost all its confidence in you".

In the schedule mentioned in the charge-sheet (Ext. 2), five items of files have been mentioned as having been stolen from the Company's office. The allegations made in the charge-sheet appear to contain three-fold charges, viz., (i) the worker used abusive and insulting languages to the Company's Secretary on 7th March 1960, (ii) he started absenting himself without notice from that date, and (iii) he stole some important and confidential files from the office of the Company. The charge-sheet originally issued to this worker was unsigned, but subsequent to the reply given by him this defect was removed and there was no further explanation on his part.

The details of the case made out by the Company against this particular workman are available from the Company's written statement read with evidence adduced before the enquiring officer at the domestic enquiry, and also before me at the time of hearing of this case. The Company's Secretary Shri Chittaranjan Chakravorty (O.P.W. 2) has deposed here to the following effect: On 5th March 1960 (Saturday) at about 12-30 p.m., Joygopal submitted to him a letter of resignation which he kept in the office almirah. As it was a payment day, and as the Secretary was busy, he only glanced over that letter of resignation without properly reading its contents. On 7th March 1960 after going to the office the Secretary looked for the resignation letter but could not find it in the almirah. He asked Joygopal as to what happened to that letter, charging him that he had taken away that letter. Joygopal got enraged and called the Secretary a liar, denying having taken away the letter in question. He was asked to speak politely but he repeatedly stated "you are a liar, itar and chhotoloke". So saying he left the office for good. Joygopal used to handle office files and papers. Joygopal used to live and dine in the house of the maliks and was very much trusted by them. At his above conduct, the Secretary got suspicious and by checking up the files he found some confidential files missing from the almirah. Shri Dinesh Saha, the husband of the proprietress, went to Delhi, and so immediate steps could not be taken by the Secretary until Dinesh Babu's return. After his return, the matter was reported to him and a charge-sheet was issued against Joygopal on 17th March 1960, and also the police was informed on that date about the loss of the confidential files, etc. There was an ex-parte domestic enquiry by Shri Ramesh Saha, the Works Manager and the youngest eldest brother of Dinesh Babu on 18th April 1960 as Joygopal did not attend the enquiry. As a result of the enquiry, Joygopal was found guilty of gross misconduct and was ultimately dismissed from service on 23rd April 1960 with effect from 17th March 1960, the date of issue of the charge-sheet and the order of suspension. It is alleged that Joygopal left the house of the maliks on 7th March 1960.

The Union has challenged the Company's story of misconduct on the part of Joygopal and the propriety and legality of the domestic enquiry, and also the legality of the order of dismissal. The case of the Union, read with the evidence adduced in this case on the side of the Union, is this: Joygopal did not at all submit any resignation letter on 7th March 1960. In fact, he left the house of the maliks about 3/4 months earlier than the said date and did not attend office on 7th March 1960 to 14th March 1960 being on leave on ground of illness. The story of Joygopal's abusing and insulting the Secretary and stealing office files is absolutely a myth. If Joygopal was really ill and absent from duty from 2nd March 1960 to 14th March 1960, there would be no question of his submitting resignation letter on 7th March 1960 and misbehaving with the Secretary on that date or stealing office files at all. All these aspects of the case are to be properly and carefully considered in the light of evidence and circumstances taken as a whole.

The very first thing that strikes the mind is delay of about 10 days in issuing the charge-sheet against Joygopal and informing the police. At the domestic enquiry, the Company's Secretary (P.W. 1) stated that on 7th March 1960 he found important files missing and at once lodged a diary at the thana. As a matter of fact, the police was not informed before 17th March 1960 (vide Ext. E). Apart from this discrepancy, the delay is explained by saying that Dinesh Babu was in Delhi and so immediate steps could not be taken until he returned on 16th March 1960. It is surprising to note here that the police does not appear to have taken any interest in the matter and to have proceeded further on the information given by the Secretary on 17th March 1960. This Dinesh Babu has not been examined in this case. Even if the explanation for the delay be accepted as correct and probable, still the question remains whether Joygopal is guilty of having removed the files from the office almirah. As regards this particular allegation, no date of removal of the files is specified anywhere. The removal, if any, could have taken place some time before 7th March 1960, not on that particular date. Even by surmise, the probable date is far from ascertainable. If Joygopal left the house of the Maliks 3/4 months before the said date, the allegation of theft of files by him would lose its foothold to some extent inasmuch as the office is located in the Bari of the Maliks. If Joygopal had custody of the key of the office almirah, then there might be some probability of his having removed the files. Here also a question would again arise as to why he would have stolen the files if he was very much trusted by the Maliks. The evidence given on the Company's side before me is that the key of the office almirah was kept in the office, say, in the drawer of the office table, and Joygopal had free access to the key, the almirah and the office files, as he used to open and lock up the almirah with the key, he being a trusted man of the Maliks. At the time of enquiry the Secretary said that the key of the almirah used to be kept with Joygopal. It is a further instance of discrepancy in a relevant and important matter.

The enquiring officer Shri Ramesh Saha has not been examined before this Tribunal. His report (Ext. F-1) is that he found the charges fully proved and established beyond any reasonable doubt. That report is based on the evidence of the sole witness Shri C. R. Chakravorty. As far as I can see no possible view of guilt on account of alleged removal of files could reasonably be taken in view of the evidence adduced at the enquiry and the circumstances of the case, except some vague suspicion only.

Coming to the question of the resignation letter said to be submitted on 7th March 1960, I find certain difficulties and improbabilities. No reason for resignation is given by any one. If Joygopal was a very trusted man, there appears to be no adequate reason for his giving up the job of his own accord. None of Shri C. R. Chakravorty and Shri Naresh Saha (second brother of Dinesh Babu), who is said to have been present when the resignation letter was submited to the former, perused the letter to ascertain about the reason for resignation. It is very difficult to believe that none of them read the letter and tried to ascertain the cause of resignation by a trusted person. It is only said that it was a wage-paying day and both of them were busy, and hence the resignation letter was kept in the almirah by the Secretary without being read properly. I do not understand how and why a little time could not be spared for going through the letter and ascertaining the cause of the resignation, even if it was a Pay Day at all. If the story of submission of the resignation letter falls through, the very foundation of the Company's case is totally shaken inasmuch as the alleged use of abusive words by Joygopal is alleged to have been made on Joygopal's being interrogated about the removal of that resignation letter. The non-perusal of the resignation letter on 5th March 1960 goes very much against the Company's story.

There is another important factor in this case, viz., the Union's story of Joygopal's absence on leave from 7th March 1960 to 14th March 1960. The employer denies the story of Joygopal's being on leave from 7th March 1960 and contends that he came to office on 7th March 1960 and since that day he left the job after the said occurrence of use of abusive words. The employer has put in a so-called Hazira Khata to show the relevant entry (Ext. L) about Joygopal's absence from 7th March 1960 without any note as to leave. O.P.W. 3 Naresh Saha says that there was no regular office register for office attendance, but he used to maintain an informal or personal Khata for attendance for his own convenience. The Khata shows Haziras only for four months to cover up the period of origin of the dispute. Even the name of the family priest of the employer finds mention in this Khata. No reliance can be placed on such a piece of evidence like Ext L. This Khata does not show the name of Joygopal since 15th March 1960. The evidence like this Khata of suspicious nature cannot be relied upon. Anyway, Joygopal was absent from 7th March 1960. His case is that he submitted a medical certificate to the Company for leave through a worker named Niranjan Mondal. He has put in a payment slip from Employees' State Insurance Corporation (Ext. 1) to show receipt of medical cost for illness from 7th March 1960 to 14th March 1960, presumably on the strength of a Panel Doctor's certificate. Niranjan Mondal (P.W. 4) says that on 7th March 1960 a son of Joygopal's Pishima named Dilip Kumar Paul went to him and gave him Joygopal's medical certificate for making over the same to the Company for medical leave, and this witness made over the medical certificate on that very date to the employer's Durwan named Misir. He has denied the suggestion that he did not make over the medical certificate to Misir. The employer asserts non-receipt of any such medical certificate. But the payment slip (Ext. 1) cannot be called a faked thing. This very fact supports the Union's contention that Joygopal must have fallen ill and remained absent on leave from 7th March 1960 to 14th March 1960. That being so, it goes without saying that the employer's allegation of Joygopal's arrival at the office on 7th March 1960 and utterances of filthy languages to the Secretary is far from acceptable. Moreover, the belated charge-sheet and the report to the police on 17th March 1960 synchronise with the story of Joygopal's absence on leave till 14th March 1960. Joygopal further says that on the expiry of leave he went to resume duty on 15th March 1960 and was told to come on the following day on the ground that Dinesh Babu was abroad. He further says that on 16th March 1960 he went for duty but was manhandled and driven out of the factory. He appears to have brought a police case of assault on him on 16th March 1960 against five persons including Dinesh Babu and two Durwans. The learned Presidency Magistrate rejected the petition of complaint on 7th May 1960 by characterising it as a dodge in Joygopal's absence on petition on medical certificate. That complaint was summarily rejected under section 247, Cr. P.C. But that rejection does not necessarily go against the Union's case. If Joygopal was absent on leave from 7th March 1960 to 14th March 1960, there seems to have been no reason why he would not come to resume his duty on the expiry of leave. At most it may be said that the story of assault is incorrect. But that does not necessarily prove the employer's case as to the alleged incident of 7th March 1960. On the contrary, the report to the police and the issue of the charge-sheet on 17th March 1960 would suggest about some sort of Golmal between the employer and this employee, after the expiry of his leave.

The Union challenges the domestic enquiry against Joygopal as unfair and bogus. The employer relies much on the enquiry held ex-parte against Joygopal. Admittedly, Joygopal did not attend that enquiry. The Union's case is that on account of assault on him on 16th March 1960 Joygopal alone did not venture to present himself at the enquiry in apprehension of further assaults. In a letter, dated 16th April 1960 (Ext. 5), the Union wrote to the employer's Secretary that for the purpose of security as also for natural justice so that the enquiry cannot be made an eye-wash, the Union Secretary should remain present at the enquiry as the worker concerned apprehended that he would be assaulted by the employer's men. The employer did not reply to that letter, nor does he appear to have complied with that request. If the employer had any objection to the presence of the Union Secretary, some member of the Works Committee might be called there to allay Joygopal's feeling of apprehension. In the circumstances, therefore, it cannot be said that the ex-parte enquiry was not prejudicial to the worker concerned. The Union's contention that there was no fair play in the matter of enquiry cannot be lightly discarded in the above circumstances.

Lastly, the employer appears to have passed an illegal order of dismissing Joygopal on 23rd April 1960 giving effect from 17th March 1960, the date of the charge-sheet and the order of suspension. This retrospective effect is illegal.

From all that has been discussed and found above, I come to the conclusion that the alleged guilt of Joygopal has not been proved, nor any possible view of his guilt can be taken as a result of the domestic enquiry of the nature referred to above. Hence, it is held that the dismissal of Joygopal Talukdar is unjustified. Accordingly the employer is directed to reinstate this concerned workman to his former job and to pay him all his back dues for the period of forced unemployment, within one month from the date of publication of this award in the "Calcutta Gazette."

Re: Uday Kumar Das

This workman was dismissed on 10th October 1960 with immediate effect after an enquiry in regard to the charge-sheet against him on 16th August 1960 alleging that he misbehaved with Shri Naresh Saha, Accounts-in-charge, on 13th August 1960 by using filthy and offensive language against him. The case against him is said to have arisen in the following way:

On 13th August 1960, the day of weekly payment of wages, Naresh Babu found the fund somewhat short and told the payees to receive somewhat less. The workers except Uday agreed to take less, and were given less payments. Uday was first reluctant, and subsequently he agreed to take less by Rs. 4, but he expressed that he would see later on. At this Naresh Babu told him not to forget about his being given an advance of Rs. 40 which he returned after a long time, and that he should not be a beiman. At this Uday called Naresh Babu "Chhotoloke" repeatedly. The utterance of the word "Chhotoloke" against Naresh Babu repeatedly is said to be very offensive tantamounting to gross misconduct on the part of Uday. This occurrence is said to have taken place at 1-30 p.m. There was a charge-sheet against this worker and there was also an enquiry held, and finally he was dismissed as stated above.

The case of Uday through the Union is a total denial of the story of proposal of less payment and denial of the incident altogether. The Union's case is that the wages are paid weekly between 12-30 p.m. and 1 p.m., not thereafter. It is said that the work finishes at 1 p.m. on Saturday and wages are paid before the closure of the works. It is further said that on the date in question (13th August 1960) regular and full wages were paid to the workers by 1 p.m., and that in case of short payment the employer used to give prior notice to the Union. Uday has given evidence before me in the above strain. He is supported by P. W. 3 Jiten Sarkar, and P.W. 4 Niranjan Mondal, both are workers of the employer. The employer examined only the Secretary (O.P.W. 2) and Naresh Babu (O.P.W. 3), but no workman, although some workmen are said to have been present at the place of the occurrence. The Union has put in one notice (Ext. 8), dated 19th March 1960, to show that the employer used to give prior notice to the Union in case of short payment due to financial difficulties. But no such notice was given in regard to the alleged proposal for short payment on 13th August 1960.

The workmen named Samir Chakravorty, Md. Kouser Ali, Durga Mohan Biswas and Advaita Goswami gave evidence for the employer at the enquiry; on the other hand, Uday and the workmen named Sachindra Das, Jiten Sarkar, Madan Das and Niranjan Mondal gave evidence for Uday. At the domestic enquiry Naresh Babu said that at the time of the occurrence, Jiban Karmakar, Sachin Das, Jiten Sarkar, Biren Mondal, Kouser Ali, Advaita Goswami, Samir Chakravorty and Durga Mohan Biswas were present. At the domestic enquiry Naresh Babu said that Jiban Karmakar, Sachin Das, Jiten Sarkar, Biren Mondal, Kouser Ali, Advaita Goswami, Samir Chakravorty and Durga Mohan Biswas were present at the time of the incident. Of them, Samir, Kouser Ali, Durga Biswas and Advaita Goswami also deposed for the employer. On the other hand Uday gave his own evidence and examined the aforementioned Sachin Das and Jiten Sarkar, as well as two other workmen named Madan Das and Niranjan Mondal. Uday's witnesses at the enquiry spoke of receipt of full payments on 13th August 1960 in usual time, and there was no altercation or exchange of words between Uday and Naresh Babu. These four witnesses have totally denied about the allegation of the employer against Uday. Of course, they admit that sometimes short payments were made and the remaining dues were paid afterwards. But that would not necessarily mean that there was short payment on 13th August 1960 as well. The employer's witnesses, Samir and others, stated about payment of wages after 1 p.m. on 13th August 1960. Samir spoke of Uday's use of the word "Chhotoloke" against Naresh Babu and of no provocation for that, saying that Naresh Babu called Uday ungrateful with reference to some advance made previously. Kouser Ali said that he heard some one calling another "Chhotoloke". This evidence is too vague to be taken notice of. Durga Biswas said that Naresh Babu called Uday "Beiman", and next Uday called Naresh Babu "Chhotoloke". Next moment he further said that he could not say whether this utterance of "Chhotoloke" was meant for Uday himself or Naresh Babu. So this kind of evidence may also be easily ignored as vague and useless. Moreover, his evidence suggests some sort of provocation from Naresh Babu to Uday by the earlier use of the term "Beiman". The exchange of words "Beiman" and "Chhotoloke" between Naresh Babu and Uday was also stated by Advaita Goswami, the family priest of the Maliks. By this some sort of provocation is meant. Even if there was no provocation in the real sense of the term, the evidence and the circumstances disclosed at the enquiry are not such as to characterise Uday's behaviour as being "grossly misconduct". If the evidence of the witnesses examined by Uday at the enquiry is taken into account, then there was no occurrence at all. In this connection the Account Books of the Company play some important part. The Acquittance Roll shows as if full payments of wages were made to all the workers on the relevant date. In case of full payment, if true, there could be no occasion for an incident as alleged. The Company has, however, put in other account papers to show several instances of short payments in spite of full payments being noted in the Acquittance Roll. On one previous instance, at least, there was, as stated above, prior notice for short payments. In regard to the payments on the date in question there was no such prior notice. Circumstances are, therefore, not absolutely free from doubt. Even if it be taken that there was short payments on that particular date and there was any incident as alleged by the Company, the facts and circumstances are not such as to take any fair or possible view as to the guilt of gross misconduct on the part of Uday Das, in face of all that transpired at the domestic enquiry inasmuch as Uday appears to have been somewhat provoked. In these circumstances, he should have been let off with only a sort of warning without being punished by dismissal.

I, therefore, conclude that the dismissal of Uday Das was not justified. Accordingly, it is directed that he be reinstated in his former job with continuity of service and be paid all back wages for the period of forced unemployment, within one month from the date of publication of this decision in the "Calcutta Gazette."

Award is passed accordingly.

AWARD

After service of usual notices both the parties have entered appearance and filed their respective written statements. The workmen have filed written statement through their Union. The workmen's case in short is this: This particular Glass Industry employs about 700 workers and the Company is very prosperous. It produces quality products and earns a good margin of profit. But the wages paid to its workmen are rather low. To ameliorate the hardships of the workers partially, the Union placed a charter of demands for Puja bonus, but this demand made the Company rather vindictive. The Company not only declined to pay any bonus but also refused to employ many workers. It prevented some workers from entering the factory and started supplying inferior quality of raw materials. The matter did not stop there also. Subsequently the Company declared a lock-out of the Mill on the false allegation that the workers had resorted to go-slow tactics and disorderly behaviour. The lock-out, however, was lifted on 23rd August 1960, but the Management charge-sheeted large number of workers on certain false allegations and dismissed them also. The Union, therefore, raised certain disputes regarding wages for the lock-out period, bonus for the year 1960 and also for re-employment of the charge-sheeted workers. During the conciliation proceedings in respect of these disputes, the Company refused employment to one Shri Bansraj. The contention of the workmen is that the lock-out was declared simply to terrorize the workers and force them to come to terms with the Management. It is also urged that the workmen are entitled to 15 days' consolidated wages as customary bonus and two months' consolidated wages as profit sharing bonus.

The Company's case on the other hand may be briefly stated as follows: The Company submits that it was compelled to declare lock-out on account of deliberate go-slow policy adopted by the workmen and their disorderly and riotous conduct on the eve of the lock-out. The lock-out, it is alleged, was wholly bona fide and fully justified. Shri Bansraj had been appointed as a probationer on a temporary basis and his services were terminated in terms of contract of service between him and the Company. The Company denies that it supplied bad quality of raw materials and that anybody was discharged for victimisation. The Company had to charge-sheet several workers for grave misconduct on their part and take disciplinary action against them after giving them full opportunities to defend themselves. The Company sustained very serious loss on account of the go-slow tactics and gross misconduct on the part of the workmen and accordingly decided not to pay any bonus for the year 1960. In fact, this was made a condition before lifting of the lock-out.

Other facts will appear from the body of the award that follows.

Decisions

Issue No. 1

As the issue stands, this Tribunal is required to determine whether the Company had sufficient justification for not employing the workmen concerned after the lock out was lifted in August 1960. From the list attached to this issue, it will appear that I am required to look into the matter of termination of services of 54 different workmen. It is not at all in dispute that the Management declared lock-out of the Mill from 13th June 1960 to 22nd August 1960 and the lock-out was actually lifted on 23rd August 1960. Apparently, from a reading of the issue itself it appears as if all these 54 workmen were refused employment on the date on which the lock-out was actually lifted. But from a reading of the written statements of the parties it appears that the matter is not actually so simple as it seems from a reading of the issue alone. The issue is not happily worded. At the time of hearing, the case of the Union is that the Company unjustly issued charge-sheets against 30 of the said 54 workmen and ultimately dismissed them without any valid reason and without any proper enquiry. As regards the rest, the case of the workmen is that these workmen presented themselves at the factory gate for employment on the day the lock-out was lifted, but the Management did not allow them to enter the factory or take up their duties. The Union further adds that the charge-sheeted workmen were not allowed to enter the factory premises on 23rd August 1960, the day of the lifting of the lock-out, but they were handed over charge-sheets at the factory gate when they wanted to enter the factory for attending their duties. The Company on the other hand does not deny the fact of issuing charge-sheets to thirty-one of the workmen mentioned in the list referred to above. The Management, however, contends that all these charge-sheeted persons were guilty of serious misconduct and so they were dismissed after a fair and impartial domestic enquiry wherein they were found guilty of the charges levelled against them. From the copies of charge-sheets issued against the workmen concerned it appears that the charges were more or less similar in case of most of the charge-sheeted persons. The charges of the Management against these persons were that they resorted to illegal and unjustified slow-down tactics for a certain period on the eve of the lock-out; that they incited and instigated other workmen to indulge in such illegal and unjustified slow-down tactics; that they indulged in riotous behaviour inside the factory premises during the said period and insulted the managing staff who requested them to withdraw their slow-down tactics and that they incited and instigated others to take recourse to riotous behaviour. Out of the 30 charge-sheeted persons about 26 of them submitted their replies to the chagre-sheets. Exhibit B will show that about 26 such charge-sheeted persons filed a joint reply in respect of their charge-sheets. The other four charge-sheeted persons presumably failed to submit any reply in this connection. The charge-sheeted persons, however, deny the truth of all the allegations made against them in the charge-sheets. The Company made enquiry against all these charge-sheeted persons, found them guilty and ultimately dismissed them from service. Before I look into the merit of the case against each individual charge-sheeted worker, let me see how far the allegation of go-slow tactics, said to have been resorted to by these workmen on the eve of the lock-out, is a fact. The Company has filed a chart to show what was the nature of quantum of production during the relevant period. It has also produced the production registers of the relevant period in support of its contention. From the production registers read with the graphs marked Ext. E series, it appears that the production went very low for a certain period on the eve of the lock out. It also appears that the work went up again after the lock-out was withdrawn. The graphs Exts. E and E(1) show not the quantum of production but the loss of production during the relevant period. It will appear therefrom that in the last week of May 1960 the production all on a sudden went very low and this state of affairs continued till the lock-out was declared. It will appear from Ext. E that before this period for fairly long time variation in quantum of production was little or not much except for a few days in the last part of January 1960. From Ext. E(1) it will be clear that shortly after the lifting of lock-out the production again became normal. This graph is supported by the Ext. F(1), the production book, the Ext. F, the progress register, and the Exts. F(2) and F(3), register of adult workers. From these documentary evidences it appears that in fact the production was considerably low during the relevant period. According to the Management, this under-production was due to go-slow tactics resorted to by the workmen concerned. On the other hand, the Union's case appears to be that this under-production was not due to any fault of the workmen themselves but due to bad materials supplied by the Management. In page 3 of the Union's written statement, the Union categorically alleges that the Management gave inferior quality of raw materials for manufacture of finished glass and that the Management kept Bhatty or furnace out of order deliberately to make out a case of low production and go-slow tactics. Thus indirectly the workmen also admit that production went down during the relevant period. The real dispute is whether this low production was due to the fault and go-slow tactics of the workmen or due to machination of the Management by supplying bad materials and maintaining furnace in bad order. In this connection, P.W. 5 Shri Ramavilak Ahir alias Rambilash Jadav states in his deposition that the furnace was running bad for about three weeks on the eve of the lock-out and as a result more products than usual were rejected though they gave full quantum of production. Thus, in short, the contention of the workmen is that the furnace was bad during the relevant period and as a result, the molten glass for manufacture of finished glass became bad in quality and consequently there was greater percentage of rejection of the finished products. If the admitted low production was really due to bad quality of raw materials or molten glass on account of bad condition of furnace in the relevant period, surely the responsibility for the same cannot be suddled on the workmen. But the Company stoutly denies the allegation of bad quality of raw materials or bad condition of furnace as alleged. In this connection, the Learned Representative for the Company draws my attention to certain admissions made by some of the charge-sheeted workmen themselves. P.W. 23 Shri Shew Nanak Ahir alias Jadav, one of the charge-sheeted workmen, admits in his very examination-in-chief that on the eve of the lock-out the furnace was working well. At a later stage, however, he modifies his earlier version and says that in the first week of Ashar, the furnace was giving good molten glass but subsequently the molten glass was not good and the matter was reported to the superior officer. In spite of his discrepant version, it appears that this witness lends support to the Management case that the furnace was working well on the eve of the lock-out. Similarly, P.W. 16, Shri Tej Pratap Jadav, another charge-sheeted workman, admits in his cross-examination that the production was as usual on the eve of the lock-out. He did not complain of any bad material or bad furnace. P.W. 14 Shri Kalu Pasi, another sharge-sheeted workman, admits in his cross-examination that the furnace was alright before the lock-out. P.W. 27 Shri Sankar Teli was also a charge-sheeted person and he categorically admits in his cross-examination that on the eve of the lock-out the molten glass that was coming out of furnace was quite alright and had no hard materials. He further admits that at that time his machine also was working well. He concedes that if the quality of molten glass be good and the machine runs well, there is no reason why the products should be wrong or less. P.W. 15 Shri Damru Chamar, another charge-sheeted person, also admits in his cross-examination that on the eve of lock-out the quality of goods was same as before. P.W. 16 Shri Tej Pratap Jadav also admits usual production on the eve of lock-out. Thus, without further discussion, I may at once point out that even according to several charge-sheeted persons, there was nothing wrong with the molten glass or the furnace in the relevant period. So, the low production or under-production must be due to something whose responsibility does not go with the Management. From this it can be safely inferred that this low production was due to go-slow tactics adopted by the workmen as alleged by the Management.

I have already pointed out that there are about 700 workmen in this Glass Factory and if there be such tremendous loss of production day to day for a considerable period on account of go-slow tactics of the workers, nobody can possibly accuse the Management if it decides to declare a lock-out of the factory until normal relationship between the parties is restored. It goes without saying that go-slow tactics is a worst kind of offence that can be committed by the workers against the employer. There is meaning in workers' declaring a peaceful strike and deciding not to render service, or resolving to withhold service without resorting to any disorderly or riotous conduct; but there is no meaning in workers resorting to go-slow tactics—pretend to work but still refuse to work normally. The Hon'ble Supreme Court also in its different decisions has condemned the mentality of resorting to deliberate go-slow tactics or sit-down strike. In such a go-slow strike, the workmen not only deprive the employer the legitimate fruits of their labour, but also they hold out claim for wages without rendering the contractual service. Thus, without further discussion, I may at once observe that the Management had every reason to declare a lock-out in the present case and it cannot be said that the lock-out in question was a mala fide affair at the instance of the Management. It is also in evidence that the workers not only resorted to go-slow strike but they behaved disorderly and riotously. This being the state of affairs, the subsequent events must be judged in the light of the circumstances discussed above. The Management case is that not only the workmen generally resorted to go-slow tactics, etc., but the charge-sheeted persons took most active parts in this respect and they incited others in committing the said offence. Thus broadly speaking, the charge-sheeted persons were not only guilty of committing offences themselves, but they were further guilty of inciting others to commit the offences. So, if the Management selected 30 or so workers only out of many who also might have resorted to go-slow tactics at the instigation of the charge-sheeted persons, it cannot be argued that the Management was guilty of invidious distinction or discrimination. The alleged discrimination was not without reason and it was certainly not undue discrimination. These persons, it is alleged, were guilty of more serious offences than the other common workers who play rather tools in the hands of these charge-sheeted persons.

Now I shall take up the case of individual workmen who were dismissed on account of charge-sheets issued against them. Of these 30 charge-sheeted persons, No. 28 Soleman Mia, No. 29 Jangilal Pasi, No. 30 Ramkishore Chamar and No. 50 Mangal Barai have no dispute any longer with the Management. There is sufficient evidence on record to show that these four persons have collected their dues in full and final settlement of all their claims. This is not disputed by the workmen as well. These four persons have not appeared before this Tribunal also. Sarvashri Soleman Mia, Jangilal and Ramkishore were admittedly charge-sheeted but they did not attend the departmental enquiry against them in spite of notice of enquiry being served on them. Shri Mangal Barai attended the departmental enquiry, cross-examined the Company's witnesses and was found guilty by the enquiring officer. There is no evidence to the contrary in respect of these four persons. So these four persons have no case before this Tribunal. Not only they were charge-sheeted and found guilty but they have in the meantime settled their disputes with the Management. The Union which is representing the different workmen is not actually aware of the latest position. So, without further discussion I find that these four persons are not entitled to any relief before this Tribunal.

No. 9 Badamia

This workman also got the charge-sheet and actually attended the domestic enquiry. The enquiring officer found him guilty and the Management dismissed him on that ground. It further appears that Badamia has since died and it is stated that his heirs have already collected his dues from the employer company. So, there is no dispute any longer between Badamia and the Management and no question of any further relief arises.

No. 1 Ful Mohammed

This workman has appeared before this Tribunal as a witness and he is P.W. 13. He admits that he received the charge-sheet issued by the Management and gave a reply thereto. He further admits that he was informed about the departmental enquiry which he actually attended also. But he tries to say that at the time of the alleged enquiry he was asked to give his thumb impression on a blank paper only and he actually thumb impressed such a paper on the assurance that his statement would be recorded subsequently. He however tries to add that no statement was recorded after he had given his thumb impression. But from the deposition of O.P.W. 1 Shri Haridas Ganguly, the Works Manager of the Company, it appears that there was a fair and impartial enquiry against this workman also. It is also in evidence that every opportunity was given to him to defend himself. It is difficult for anybody to believe that this workman was made to thumb impress a blank paper. In fact, the Ext. P including the enquiry proceedings will show that this workman not only thumb impressed the recorded proceedings but actually cross-examined Shri Mohendra Nath Chaturbedi, the only witness examined on behalf of the Company at the domestic enquiry. From the recorded proceedings it appears that this workman not only resorted to go-slow tactics but attempted to assault also the witness Shri Mahendra Nath Chaturbedi. So, I think, there were sufficient materials before the enquiring officer to establish the charge brought against this workman. I find no sufficient reason for my interference with the Management decision so far as this workman is concerned. Accordingly I find that his dismissal is justified and that he is not entitled to any relief.

No. 2 Shri Sahadeo Pasi

This workman has not appeared before this Tribunal. It appears from Ext. P(1) that a charge-sheet was issued against him also on similar grounds as in other cases and a departmental enquiry was held by the Works Manager. It appears from the recorded proceedings of the departmental enquiry that this witness also resorted to go-slow tactics and incited others to do the same. It is in evidence that this workman displayed riotious behaviour also. There is nothing to show that any rule of natural justice was violated at the departmental enquiry or that he was denied any opportunity of defending himself. He attended the enquiry but did not participate in it actively. He refused to put his signature also on the recorded proceedings. So, in the face of these circumstances, I find no sufficient reason for my interference with the Management decision.

No. 3 Kistopal Gupta

This workman has deposed before this Tribunal and he is P.W. 4. This workman admits the receipt of charge-sheet and also the fact of his submitting a reply thereto. He of course denied the charges levelled against him. He admits that he actually attended the domestic enquiry though he pleads that he did not receive any notice in this connection. He alleges that he was asked no question by anybody at the time of enquiry and that he was there for about 5 or 7 minutes only. Exhibit P(2) including the recorded proceedings of the domestic enquiry will show that this workman also resorted to go-slow tactics and held out threats against Shri Mahendra Nath Chaturbedi who tried to pacify them and desist them from rowdyism. This witness, it appears, put some questions to Shri Nani Gopal Choudhury who was examined on behalf of the Management at the domestic enquiry, but he did not agree to put his signature to the recorded proceedings. Considering the circumstances I am unable to believe that there was no enquiry as alleged by the workman and that the departmental enquiry was not proper or bona fide. So, this workman also is not entitled to any relief before this Tribunal.

No. 4 Shri Umasankar Dubey

This workman states before this Tribunal (vide P.W. 7) that he actually went to attend the departmental enquiry after the charge-sheet and reply thereto, but in fact there was no proper enquiry. He alleges that he was at the place of enquiry for about three minutes only and nothing was asked from him in respect of the charges levelled against him. But the recorded proceedings of the departmental enquiry [vide Ext. P(3)] show that this witness not only resorted to go-slow tactics but incited and instigated others to do the same. He was violent in his attitude also and surrounded Shri Nani Gopal Chowdhuri and others and detained them till late hours at night until they were rescued by police. No reason has been shown why I should disbelieve the departmental proceedings or the enquiring officer Shri Ganguly. So no case has been made out for my interference with the Management decision.

No. 5 Shri Ramanand Ahir

This workman has not appeared before this Tribunal and there is no evidence before me to show why I should interfere with the Management decision in respect of this workman. It appears that a charge-sheet was issued against him and he failed to attend the domestic enquiry in spite of notice. The departmental enquiry was held in his absence and the enquiring officer found him guilty. This workman not only resorted to go-slow tactics but shouted slogans and used abusive languages also to the managerial staff. This workman also took active part in keeping the Manager confined in his office till late hours at night on different dates. So I am unable to interfere with the Management decision in respect of this workman also.

No. 6 Shri Ram Avilak Ahir

This workman is P.W. 5 before this Tribunal. He admits that he was charge-sheeted along with many others and submitted his reply jointly with several others. He alleges that he got no information about the alleged domestic enquiry and that he did not actually attend any such enquiry. But the Ext. P(5) including the recorded proceedings of the enquiry shows that there was an enquiry against him and he has cross-examined the Company's witness Shri Nani Gopal Chowdhuri. The recorded proceedings show that this workman resorted to go-slow tactics, incited and instigated others to do the same and became very violent when Mohendra Babu tried to reason with them. I have no reason to disbelieve or reject the departmental proceedings. So I am unable to interfere with the Management decision or the order of dismissal passed against him.

No. 7 Shri Badri Koiry

This workman deposes before this Tribunal (vide P.W. 8) and admits the receipt of charge-sheet and submission of a reply along with others. He adds that he went to the place of enquiry after receipt of a notice in that connection and stayed at the place of enquiry for two minutes only. He alleges that nothing was asked from him and so he left the place. The recorded proceedings of the departmental enquiry [vide Ext. P(6)] show that this workman not only attended the departmental enquiry, but actually put a few questions also to the Company's witness Shri Bhagabati Prasad Gupta. It appears from the recorded proceedings that this workman not only resorted to go-slow tactics but surrounded Mahendra Babu and Shri Nani Gopal Chowdhury who tried to reason with him. He was seen shouting to others for inciting them to commit the offence. Considering the facts and circumstances on record, I am unable to place sufficient reliance on the words of this workman also. So I am unable to interfere with the Management decision or the order of dismissal.

No. 8 Shrimati Lachmania

This workman in her deposition before this Tribunal (vide P.W. 9) admits the receipt of charge-sheet and submission of a reply also. She alleges that she received no notice of enquiry but nevertheless attended the place of enquiry on the due date. It is contended that she heard about the domestic enquiry from the Company's durwan and had been to the place of enquiry. She however adds that she was at the place of enquiry for about two minutes only. She cannot say what was the name of the durwan who gave her the requisite information about the domestic enquiry. From the recorded proceedings of the enquiry [vide Ext. P(7)] it appears that she attended the enquiry and put one question also in cross-examination to Shri Bhagabati Prosad Gupta, the Company's witness, at the enquiry. Bhagabati Babu stated that this workman along with others surrounded Mohendra Babu and they took a threatening attitude against him besides adopting go-slow tactics. I have already pointed out that adoption of go-slow tactics or policy is an established fact and I am unable to disbelieve the Company's witness on this point. No sufficient reason has been explained why I should reject the departental enquiry or interfere with the Management decision. So this workman also is not entitled to any relief.

No. 10 Shrimati Kausalya

Shrimati Kausalya in her deposition before this Tribunal (vide P.W. 29) admits the receipt of charge-sheet and submission of a joint reply along with others. She alleges that she attended the domestic enquiry but no question was put to her by anybody regarding the charges levelled against her. It is alleged that she was asked to thumb impress a paper but she did not agree to do the same. The recorded proceedings of the domestic enquiry [vide Ext. P(9)] show that this workman did not actively participate in the departmental enquiry though she was personally there. Shri Bhagabati Prosad Gupta was the Company's witness at the equiry and the statement of Shri Gupta shows that this workman along with others surrounded Mahendra Babu, shouted against him and resorted to riotous behaviour when Mahendra Babu tried to reason with them. I find no sufficient reason for my rejecting the domestic enquiry or interfering with the Management decision. So this workman also is not entitled to any relief.

No. 11 Shri Shew Nayak Ahir

This workman in his deposition before this Tribunal (vide P.W. 23) admits the receipt of charge-sheet and notice of enquiry and also submission of reply to the charge-sheet. He alleges that at the time of enquiry he was asked to thumb impress a paper and he did it. He alleges that after his thumb impression he was simply asked to leave the place and he did it accordingly. Thus, this witness tries to say that there was in fact no proper departmental enquiry. But from the recorded proceedings of the enquiry [vide Ext. P(10)], it appears that this witness or workman did not thumb impress any blank paper. The very position of his thumb impression shows that there was examination of witness in his presence and he cross-examined Company's witness Shri Mahendra Nath Chaturbedi. Mahendra Babu made a fairly long statement in connection with this workman and it appears there are sufficient materials to show that the charges levelled against him were not baseless. So I see no reason for my interference.

No. 12 Tej Pratap Ahir

This workman has examined himself before this Tribunal and he is P.W. 16. He admits receipt of the charge-sheet, submission of a reply thereto and also receipt of notice of enquiry. He admittedly attended the enquiry and gave his signature also (vide Ext. C). But in his statement before this Tribunal, he tries to say that he was asked to thumb impress a partly written paper and he thumb impressed the same. But the fact appears to be that he actually affixed his signature in English. I am afraid he has forgotten by now whether he actually thumb impressed the enquiry proceedings or affixed his signature thereto. Be that as it may, he tries to add that no statement of his was actually recorded. But Ext. C. shows that certain questions were put to him before the Company's witness Shri Nani Gopal Chowdhury was actually examined at the enquiry. It also appears from the same exhibit that Shri Ahir put certain questions to Nani Babu in cross-examination. It is difficult for me to believe that Shri Ahir was compelled to sign a blank paper as alleged. Of course in his cross-examination he at last admits that he put his signature to Ext. C. Considering all the circumstances already discussed and the enquiry proceedings I have reasons to believe that the finding of the domestic tribunal is not baseless or perverse. So I have no reason to interfere with the Management decision or the order of dismissal.

No. 13 Shri Kalu Pasi

Like the previous worker this worker also admits receipt of charge-sheet, and enquiry notice, submission of a reply to the charges and also attendance at the departmental enquiry. He also admits that he thumb impressed certain paper at the time of enquiry. But his contention is that no statement of his was actually recorded and that he was simply asked to leave the place after his thumb impression. In his cross-examination however he says that he could not know the content of the paper he had thumb impressed because it was not read over to him. This shows that the paper he had thumb impressed was not a blank paper but a written paper. From this also it appears to me that the proceedings were recorded in his presence and some witness also was examined. He did not care to ask any question from the Company's witness. So I am afraid his challenge of the departmental enquiry is stereotyped like others and I have no sufficient reason for holding that the enquiry proceedings were vitiated by any violation of rules of natural justice. So in his case also I have no ground for interference with the Management decision.

No. 14 Shri Gurucharan Ahir

This workman has examined himself before this Tribunal and he is P.W. 26. He admits of receipt of charge-sheet and submission of a reply thereto. He admits also of receipt of a notice of enquiry and attending the domestic enquiry. He adds that he was asked to thumb impress a paper but he refused to do it. In fact, Ext. P(13) will show that Shri Ahir refused to affix his signature to the enquiry proceedings. But in his cross-examination he makes an altogether different statement. In his cross-examination he tries to say that he was called to attend the enquiry on the very day on which he was charge-sheeted. Admittedly, he received his charge-sheet on 23rd June 1960 at the factory gate and it is absured to suggest that he was asked to attend the enquiry on that very date and that he was asked to thumb impress a paper then and there. He further adds that he was not allowed to enter the factory premises on any day after the charge-sheet was received by him. This incongruent statement of the witness rather shows that he remembers nothing and speaks something which cannot be true. I am afraid this stereotyped way of denying the enquiry cannot be believed. On the contrary, from the enquiry proceedings marked Ext. P(13) it appears that he actually attended the enquiry proceedings and some questions were put to him as well. He was not ready to put any question to Company's witness or examine any witness on his behalf. So I accept the bona fides of the departmental enquiry and accordingly find no reason for my interference with the Management decision.

No. 15 Shri Rasul Mia

This workman has not turned up before this Tribunal. From the enquiry proceedings marked Ext. P(14) it appears that he not only received charge-sheet but attended the domestic enquiry also. He put one question also to Company's witness Shri Bhagabat Prosad Gupta but he refused to examine any witness in defence. There is nothing before me to show that anything was wrong with the departmental enquiry or the Management decision. It appears that this workman also like others surrounded Shri Mahendra Nath Chaturbedi and Shri Nani Gopal Chowdhury. It further appears that on more than one occasion this witness kept some members of the managerial staff confined to the factory premises till late hours at night until they were rescued by police. This conduct on the part of the workman was surely a gross misdemeanour and it is difficult for anybody to say that there were mala fides on the part of the Management to find him guilty and dismiss him from service. In the circumstances I am unable to interfere with the Management decision in respect of this workman also.

No. 16 Shri Durjan Ahir and No. 17 Shri Dulari No. 2

Neither of these two workmen has actually appeared before this Tribunal. On the other hand, from the enquiry proceedings marked Exts. P(15) and P(16) it appears that both of them were present at the time of the domestic enquiry and they refused to affix their signatures to the departmental proceedings. Company's witness was examined in their presence and they did not care to put any question to the Company's witnesses. They not only adopted go-solw tactics but they were inciting others also to do the same. Shri Ahir held out threats of assult to Shri Mahabir Prosad Gupta. Similarly Dulari also used filthy language to some of the Company's employees who tried to reason with him. There is nothing on my record to show that there was any violation of rules of natural justice or that they were wrongly found guilty. Accordingly there is no sufficient reason for my interference with the Management decision. They are not entitled to any relief in this case.

No. 18 Shri Mewalal Jeswara

This workman has not appeared before this Tribunal. From the deposition of the Company's Manager Shri Haridas Ganguly (O.P.W. 1) it will appear that this workman was not charge-sheeted on 23rd August 1960, the day of lifting of the lock-out. In fact, he was actually working in the factory after the lock-out was lifted. He was, however, charge-sheeted on 1st September 1960 for certain misdemeanours. The misconduct levelled against him had nothing to do with the said go-slow tactics or sit-down strike. The allegation against him was that on 31st August 1960 he was asked to load a certain lorry but he refused to do it. He also prevented others from doing the same. Exhibit N(1) will show that there was a departmental enquiry against him in respect of this charge and there was sufficient evidence to establish the charge against him. Thus, not only his case does not strictly come within the purview of the issue referred to this Tribunal but the offence he committed has also been established at the departmental enquiry held against him by the Management. So this workman also is not entitled to any relief in the present case.

No. 19 Shri Shankar Teli

This workman is P.W. 27 before this Tribunal. Admittedly he was charge-sheeted and a reply also was submitted against the charge-sheet. He also got a notice in respect of the departmental enquiry. From the departmental proceedings Ext. P(17) it appears that he was not present at the time of the departmental enquiry and so the enquiry against him was held in his absence. Shri Teli, however, alleges that he went to the factory gate for attending the departmental enquiry but he was prevented from entering the factory by the factory darwan. The proceedings of the enquiry, however, show that the enquiring officer sent a bearer to the factory gate also to see if Shri Teli was at the factory gate and the report was that he was not available at the gate also. Thus, it appears to me that there is no basis for the allegation that the factory durwan prevented him from entering the factory premises. I have already shown above that the Company did not actually prevent any charge-sheeted person on any earlier date from entering the factory premises and I see no reason why this workman should be prevented like that. Thus, I am afraid Shri Teli was not present at the factory gate or the place of enquiry at the relevant time and so the enquiry had to be held in his absence. From the proceedings recorded at the enquiry it appears that this workman also incited others for adopting go-slow tactics. This witness also took part in keeping the Manager confined in the office. Thus, it appears that there were sufficient materials before the enquiring officer for finding Shri Teli guilty. There is nothing sufficient to show that rules of natural justice were deliberately violated by the enquiring officer. So I think this Tribunal has no sufficient reason for interfering with the Management decision or the order of dismissal.

No. 20 Shri Abdul Jabbar

This workman also submitted his reply to the charge-sheet. He alleges in his deposition before this Tribunal (vide P.W. 6) that he was not aware of any departmental enquiry and that he did not receive any letter in that connection. Exhibit P-18 will show that the departmental enquiry was held in his absence. From the registered letter issued in the name of this worker on more than one occasion it appears that these letters were issued in his name at 13 Madhu Babu Lane, but his statement before this Tribunal is that his local address at the relevant time was 13 Madhu Bazar Lane. Shri Jabbar further adds that there is one Madhu Babu Lane also at a slight distance from Madhu Bazar Lane and it is not denied on behalf of the Management. He also swears that he gave his correct address to the Company and it was 13 Madhu Bazar Lane. It appears that in all the papers filed by the Management, the local address of this workman was mentioned to be 13 Madhu Babu Lane. There is nothing before me to show that Shri Jabbar was actually found at 13 Madhu Babu Lane. The postal remark rather was that he was not known in that address. The above comments relate to the local address of Shri Jabbar. But it appears that simultaneously with the issue of letter to the local address, the Company sent a letter to his home address also in the district of Gaya. It will appear therefrom that the enquiry notice, dated 17th September 1960, was sent by a registered post on 21st September 1960. The Company failed to get return of the acknowledgment or the registered letter addressed to the said home address. So, the Management made correspondence with the Postal Department in this connection. From the letter received from the Postal Department, it appears that the registered letter addressed to his native place was duly served on him. So, in spite of mistake if any, at the local address, there is no escape from the conclusion that Shri Jabbar got notice of enquiry, dated 17th September 1960 asking him to appear before the domestic Tribunal on the first of October 1960. But he failed to turn up on that date in spite of notice. In the circumstances I cannot but hold that Shri Jabbar failed to appear at the departmental enquiry on account of his own laches only and so, the doctrine "Audi alteram partem" has not been violated. The enquiry in his absence was not for any default on the part of the Management. The proceedings of the ex parte enquiry disclose sufficient materials for establishing the charge levelled against him. So it cannot be held that the charge was baseless and that the finding was perverse. Accordingly this Tribunal has no reason to interfere with the Management decision or order of dismissal.

No. 21 Shri Dmru Chamar

This witness in his deposition before this Tribunal (vide P.W. 15) admits that he received a charge-sheet and went to the Union office with this charge-sheet. He adds that the Union submitted a reply on his behalf but he did not sign or thumb impress the reply. But the Ext. B purports to show as if Shri Chamar affixed his signature to the joint reply submitted by different charge-sheeted persons. If this workman is to be believed, somebody forged his signature on Ext. B. Be that as it may, the fact remains that charge-sheet was duly received and a reply also was intended to be submitted on his behalf. This workman further admits that he duly received a notice of enquiry also. At first this witness stated that he had attended the departmental enquiry but later he changed his version and alleged that he did not go to the Manager's office for the purpose of domestic enquiry. From the Ext. P(19), the departmental proceedings also, it appears that he was not present at the enquiry and the enquiry was held in his absence. No sufficient reason has been explained why he failed to attend the departmental enquiry. He does not say that anybody prevented him from attending the departmental enquiry. So the responsibility of ex parte enquiry goes with the workman himself. From the ex parte evidence before the domestic tribunal it appears that there was sufficient material before the enquiring officer to establish the charges levelled against this workman. So I find nothing wrong with the Management decision that this workman also was guilty like many others and the offence was serious enough to justify dismissal. So this Tribunal has no sufficient reason for interfering with the Management decision or the order of dismissal.

No. 22 Shri Rambahadur Pasi

This workman has deposed before this Tribunal and he is P.W. 10. He admits that he received a charge-sheet and went to the Union office after receipt of this charge-sheet. But he alleges that he did not give any reply to this charge-sheet. But peculiarly enough the joint reply submitted on behalf of many a charge-sheeted workman shows that this workman also was a party to the joint reply, Ext. B. So I do not know where lies the truth. The workman tries to allege that he was residing at the relevant time at 25 Joybibi Road. But from the Ext. P(20) it will appear that more than one registered letter was served on him at 15/1 Dr. H. K. Chatterjee Lane, Ghusury, Howrah. So it is difficult for me to believe that this witness was actually residing at 25 Joybibi Lane at the relevant time. From Ext. P(20) it will appear that on one occasion the registered letter could not be served on him because he had left the address at the relevant time. But from the other acknowledgment of that Ext. it will appear that he was found on more than one occasion at 15|1 Dr. H. K. Chatteriee Lane. It is also clear from that exhibit that the Management gave sufficient notice to him for attending the departmental enquiry and yet he failed to attend the enquiry and so the enquiry was held in his absence. So if the departmental proceedings were held in his absence for his own laches, the responsibility thereof lies on his own shoulder and not that of the Management. From the recorded departmental proceedings it further appears that there were sufficient materials before the enquiring officer to establish the charge levelled against him. So I cannot hold that the charge was baseless or that the finding was reverse. So I have no sufficient reason to interfere with the Management decision or the order of dismissal. He is, therefore, entitled to no relief before this Tribunal.

No. 23 Shri Sattar Mia

Undoubtedly this workman also was charge-sheeted and he received charge-sheet by affixing thumb impression on a receipt. It appears that he filed a joint reply also to the charge-sheet (vide Ext. B). But from Ext. P(21) it appears that the departmental enquiry against him was held in his absence. From the different notices of enquiry issued in his name in different address, it appears to me that the notice could not be actually delivered to this workman. From the papers of Ext. P(21), however, it appears that the Management made all possible attempts to serve the notice of enquiry on this workman. The Management issued more than one enquiry notice one after another to give information about the enquiry to this workman. It also appears that letters were simultaneously issued in this connection both in his local address as well as to his home address in the district of Ajamgarh. It appears at the relevant time this workman left his local as well as home address for some unknown destination and so he could not be found in his home address also. It is apparent from the papers on record that the Management left no stone unturned to get the notice of enquiry served on this workman. It is nobody's case that the letters were not correctly addressed. Some were returned with the postal remark "left" and some with the remark "not known". I am afraid notice was avoided. So, in the circumstances, the notices should be deemed to have been served and the responsibility for default lies squarely on the shoulder of the workman himself. The workman should have left his correct address to the Management before he changed his address during the pendency of the enquiry proceedings. The charge-sheet was duly received by him and reply also was submitted on his behalf. In these circumstances, this workman should not have left his local address and home address without leaving proper address at home or with the Management. So to me it appears that the enquiry proceedings cannot be said to have been vitiated simply because the notice of enquiry could not be served on this workman. From the enquiry proceedings as recorded, and the evidences bofere me it appears that there were sufficient materials on record to show that the charges levelled against him were prima facie correct. So, I am of opinion that the Management decision could not be interfered with in spite of apparent non-service of enquiry notice. In this view of the matter no relief is due to this workman also.

No. 24 Shri Apal Ram, No. 25 Shri Ram Siromani Sukla, No. 26 Shri Ramprosad Chamar and No. 27 Shri Rajaram Ahir.

I take up the cases of these four workmen together because there are common or similar questions of law and fact in all the four cases. From Exts. P(22) to P(25) it will appear that these four persons duly received their charge-sheets and the first two submitted their joint replies also. The other two of course did not submit any reply. But from the different letters addressed to them by the Management, it appears that they left their local address after the issue of charge-sheets. Not only that, these four persons were not found in their respective home addresses also and the Management could not serve notices of enquiry on them in spite of its best attempt. It appears that all the registered letters containing the notice of enquiry were returned to the Company with the postal remark "left" or "not known" or "not found". In fact, more than one notice of enquiry was issued against each one of them and at a later stage notices were issued not only to their local address, but also to their home address, and yet the notices could not be served. Thus, it is clear that the Management tried its best to give intimation of the date of enquiry to the workmen but failed to do it—not for its own laches but for the laches of the workmen themselves who had left no correct address before they had left their local address and home address. As a result, the departmental enquiries against them were held in their absence and the exhibits already referred to include the recorded proceedings of the enquiry. From the recorded proceedings and the evidences before me it appears that there were sufficient materials to establish prima facie the charges levelled against these four workmen. If the evidences adduced on behalf of the Management are believed, the conclusion of guilt against them is quite possible. I think, in the present case, the doctrine of "Audi alteram partem" cannot be said to have been violated simply because the notices could not be actually delivered to the workmen in spite of Management's best efforts. They presumably avoided the notice, so my considered opinion is that this Tribunal will not be justified in interfering with the Management decision or the order of dismissal.

I have dealt with 31 workmen above and they were all charge-sheeted. It is nobody's case that the rest of the workmen of this reference were charge-sheeted by the Management. The workmen's case is that these 23 persons were simply refused employment after the lock-out was withdrawn though no charge-sheet was issued against them for any offence. The Management's case on the other hand is that these workmen did not turn up at all for joining their duties; and on their long and continued absence only they were deemed to have left the service of the Company voluntarily. So I shall deal with these workmen separately and individually hereafter. In this connection, I may at once observe that No. 31 Prabhu Nath Sukla, No. 32 More Sukla alias Biseswar Sukla, No. 34 Prabhu Nath Gareria and No. 35 Ramkaran Gareria have since collected their dues in full and final settlement of all their claims. None of these four persons has appeared before this Tribunal and the Union has no evidence to show that these persons have not settled their disputes with the Company. Exhibit L series will show that these four persons have not only collected their dues in full and final settlement, but they have granted receipts also accordingly. So without further discussion I at once hold that these four persons have no longer any dispute with the Company and they are not entitled to any relief.

No. 45 Baru Shaw

It is in evidence that Baru Shaw has since died and he also collected his dues in full and final settlement of his claim. So this workman also can no longer have any dispute against the Company.

No. 51 Shri Bansraj

This workman is P. W. 32 before this Tribunal. He categorically admits before me that after the lock-out was withdrawn, he served this Company for four months. All that he adds is that he was subsequently driven out by the Company. But he admits that he was the holder of a red card and that shows that he was only a temporary worker. It is also clear from his deposition that he was employed for a fixed term of three months only. He did not serve this Company for at least three or four months before the lock-out in question. So it is idle to plead on his behalf that he was not given employment by the Management after the lock-out was withdrawn. He was a temporary worker and he has been discharged. There is nothing before me to show that termination of his temporary service was in any way wrongful. So I am of opinion that he is entitled to no relief before this Tribunal.

No. 33 Shri Kanai Gareria

From the deposition of the Company's Works Manager Shri Haridas Ganguly it appears that this workman was dismissed long before the lock-out was declared. The Ext. O will show that this workman was dismissed on 25th May 1960 for long and continued absence without leave from 23rd April 1960. The workman does not appear before this Tribunal and contradict either of these two pieces of evidences. In the circumstances, it cannot be held that he was wrongfully dismissed or refused employment by the Management. He is, therefore, entitled to no relief.

No. 53 Shri Mewalal

It appears that this workman resigned from service on 18th April 1961 and he collected his dues in full and final settlement of his claim [vide Ext. L(4)]. So there is no question of refusal of employment to this workman after the withdrawal of the lock-out. Accordingly he is not entitled to any relief in the present case.

No. 46 Shri Lalta Prosad and No. 54 Shri Fulchand

Neither of these two workmen has appeared before this Tribunal. It is clear from the deposition of Shri Haridas Ganguly, the Works Manager, that Shri Lalta Prosad worked up to 19th April 1960 and absented himself thereafter without leave or permission. Similarly Shri Fulchand also worked up to April 1960 and absented himself from duties without leave or permission. They have not reported for duties since then. So, question of refusal of employment on 23rd August 1960 in their cases also, does not arise at all. Accordingly I hold that these two workmen also are not entitled to any relief in the present case.

Of the 13 other workers whose cases are yet to be considered, nine have actually appeared before this Tribunal and examined themselves. The other four have not appeared before this Tribunal. The case of these 13 workmen is that on the date the lock-out was lifted, they reported for duties at the factory gate but the durwan or some other employee of the Company refused to allow them entry into the factory premises and thus they were prevented from joining their duties. The Company's case, on the other hand, is that none of these 13 persons actually reported for duty on the day the lock-out was withdrawn or on any day thereafter. In fact, these persons, it is alleged by the Company, failed like many others to turn up in spite of repeated notices by the Management in this connection. They were called upon to join their duties by more than one notice and yet they failed to do it and so ultimately they were deemed to have left the service of the Company voluntarily. In this connection, the Company places reliance on different notices issued by the Management on different dates. Exhibit K(1) shows that 113 workers failed to report for their duties on 23rd August 1960 and so they were called upon to resume their duties within seven days of that notice. This list includes the name of the 13 workmen under consideration. But in spite of this notice, these 13 persons failed to report for duty though certain others joined their duties in the meantime. Exhibit K(2) will show that the Company issued another notice on 26th August 1960 and on that date also 49 workers were yet to report for and join their duties. This list of 49 persons includes the names of the 13 workers in question. On 31st August 1960, the Company issued a fresh notice [vide Ext. K(3)] and on that date also 41 workers were found absent from duty in spite of two previous notices and this 41 workmen include the 13 workmen in question. So, on that date, the Management treated them to have left the services of the Company on their own accord. It is not at all in dispute that on the eve of lifting of the lock-out, the Management issued notice to every individual workman as well as general notice to all workmen asking them to resume their duties on 23rd August 1960 or earlier. Most of the workmen of the Company responded to these calls. But a section failed to resume their duties and this failure necessitated further general notices like exts. K(1), K(2) and K(3). Thus if the notices are believed, there is no escape from the conclusion that these 13 workmen also failed to report for their duties after the withdrawal of the lock-out and the plea of refusal of employment has no basis. I shall now consider their individual cases.

Workman No. 43 Shri Dukhi Mia

Shri Dukhi Mia is P. W. 1 before this Tribunal He alleges that he went to the factory on 23rd August 1960 but he was told by Chandi Babu and a durwan that he would no longer be employed by the Company. But in his cross-examination he admits that he went on leave for 14 days, a few days before the declaration of the lock-out and went to his native place. He alleges that when he presented himself at the factory gate on 23rd August 1960, he did not see any other workman entering the factory. According to him, other workers might have entered the factory already before he had gone to the factory gate. He admits that he saw no other person at the gate except the alleged Chandi Babu and the durwan. But from the deposition of other witnesses it appears that on the eve of the morning shift several hundred persons actually gathered at the factory gate, and if this workman would come to join his duties in time as alleged, he would certainly see other workmen entering the factory or waiting at the factory gate. This shows that his allegation of coming to the factory gate for re-joining his duties is not acceptable or believable. He did not complain to the Management that he was unjustly refused employment even though he presented himself at the gate for the purpose.

He did not lodge any verbal protest even to the Management in this connection. It is not his case that he reported for duty on any subsequent day also. So I am unable to believe that he actually came to resume his duties on 23rd August 1960 and that he was unjustly refused employment.

No. 37 Shri Khalik Mia

Shri Khalik Mia is P.W. 2 before this Tribunal and his case also is that he went to the factory for joining his duties on 23rd August 1960 and that the durwan told him at the gate that he would no longer be employed by the Company. This witness's case is that he came to join his duties at about 5-30 or 6 p.m. on 23rd August 1960 because he presumed that he would be required to work in the night shift. But he admits in his cross-examination that on the eve of lock-out he worked in the day shift. Thus, actually he had no reason to come to join the night shift. His simple contention is that previously he and one Barshati used to work in some shift before lock-out and that Barshati was required to work in the night shift after the lock-out. According to this workman, he simply assumed that like Barshati he would also be required to work in the evening shift and accordingly he came to the gate in the evening. He tries to add that he and Barshati came to join their duties together, but he was not allowed to enter the factory even though Barshati was allowed to do it. This workman makes no attempt to examine Barshati in support of his case. So except the uncorroborated statement of this workman, there is nothing to show that he actually came to join his duties in the evening of 23rd August 1960. On the other hand, the documentary evidence on the side of the Management shows that he was found absent on 23rd August 1960. This workman further admits that he went to his native place after the re-opening of the factory and remained there for two months. He cannot say in which month he did go to his native place. I am afraid this witness was really staying in his native place all along and he failed to report for duties on the day the lock-out was lifted and accordingly there was no question of refusal of employment to him. In the circumstances, I accept the Management's story regarding this workman also and think that he is not entitled to any relief in the present case.

No. 36 Shri Kalu Pasi, No. 38 Shri Makbul Mia, No. 39 Shri Jangilal Jadav, No. 40 Shri Ram Lakhan Pasi, No. 41 Shri Nebulal Pandey, No. 42 Shri Mataranjan (Helper), No. 44 Shri Enayet Ali, No. 47 Shri Motilal Jadav, No. 48 Shri Sripal Pasi, No. 49 Shri Rajaram Kurmi, and No. 52 Shri Rampal Kanchi.

These 11 workmen may be said to have similar case in respect of them. Of these 11 again, four have not actually appeared before this Tribunal at all and thus they have no case for themselves. There is no sufficient evidence to show that these four persons actually presented themselves at the gate on 23rd August 1960 and that they were prevented by anybody from joining their duties. The other seven workers, of course, have actually appeared before this Tribunal and alleged that they were not allowed to enter the factory premises even though they tried to do it. But I may simply observe that this allegation of theirs is rather stereotyped and makes no impression whatsoever on me. Their story is more or less same. Some of them allege that they did not actually try to enter the factory on any day except on 23rd August 1960. Some others allege that they tried to enter the factory on more than one day after 23rd August 1960 also. But there is nothing to show that any one of these workmen lodged any formal complaint with the Management on this ground. They simply allege that they brought this matter to the notice of the Union Secretary who promised to take steps in the matter. There is nothing before me to show that the Union Secretary also formally and actually pleaded before the Management on their behalf soon after the alleged refusal. The Union Secretary has examined himself in this connection but his deposition also does not carry conviction with me. He speaks of all the 23 workmen who allege that they were refused employment though no charge-sheet was issued against them. But I have already shown that at least in cases of 10 persons there was no question of refusal of employment at all on 23rd August 1960. This shows that the Secretary of the Union also has no respect for truth and that he does not know or did not know the real state of affairs at any time. From the deposition of P.W. 28, Shri Nebulal Pandey, it is clear that he actually went away to his native place because he had no mind to work. This shows that in fact there was no refusal of employment to Shri Pandey also. Though he had no mind to work, he was nevertheless sent for by the Secretary to come to Calcutta in connection with this case alone. So, simply because the names of some of the workers appear in the order of reference, it cannot be presumed that they all had actual interest in the present dispute. From the circumstances it appears to me that the Union actually tried to fish in troubled waters and agitated for reasons best known to it, in the name of all the persons who lost their employments or gave up their employments during certain period, without trying to ascertain whether they were actually refused employment by the Management on the lifting of the lock-out. This is the reason why simple refusal of employment has been mentioned in respect of 31 workmen also even though they were really dismissed for misconducts after issue of charge-sheet and regular enquiry. There were others also regarding whom there was never any question of refusal of employment on 23rd August 1960. So I am afraid the present dispute cannot be said to be bona fide in all respects. On the contrary, from the evidence of the Management it appears that it issued repeated notices urging the absenting workmen to appear and join their duties and it actually employed all who sought to join their duties during the entire month of August 1960. Moreover, I see no sufficient reason for Management's simply refusing to employ 23 workers only even though no charge-sheet was issued against anyone of them. If the Management would have any particular grudge against them on account of the strike discussed above, the Management could easily charge-sheet them like others and dismiss them after some sort of enquiry. There were several hundreds of workmen at the relevant time and I see no reason for Management's singling out a few persons only and refusing to employ them without any reason whatsoever. It appears to me that these persons actually failed to join their duties within the month of August as desired by the Management and so they were taken to have relinquished their services. Now that a dispute has been raised, name of every one of them has been included as if all of them were refused employment unjustly by the Management on the day the lock-out was lifted. But I find no substance in this allegation. So my final conclusion is that the allegation of refusal of employment regarding all these workmen has no basis and accordingly they are not entitled to any relief before this Tribunal.

Issue No. 2

The question for determination is whether the Company had sufficient justification for refusing to pay bonus for the year 1960. It is not at all in dispute that the Company had pleaded inability to pay bonus for the year 1960; though they paid such bonus in some earlier years as well as for later years. It is urged on behalf of the workmen that 15 days' consolidated wages as bonus were paid to all workers for the year 1959 irrespective of the question of profit and loss in that year. They accordingly asked for 15 days' consolidated wages as customary bonus and two months' consolidated wages as profit sharing bonus for the year 1960. The Company's contention on the other hand is that it sustained serious loss for the year 1960 on account of gross misconduct of the workmen and so they were unable to pay any bonus for that year. I may at once point out that there is little or no evidence on the side of the workmen to show that they were entitled to profit sharing bonus for the year 1960. Shri Ramchandra Singh, the Secretary of the Union, alleges in his deposition that the Management had been granting bonus to the workmen continuously since 1944 or 1945. But he adds that he heard that the workers were getting bonus at the rate of 15 days' wages each year. Thus, from his own deposition also it is clear that he has no personal knowledge in the matter. He is himself not an employee of this Company. No other workman swears before me that the workmen of this Company were actually getting bonus in all the years from 1945 or so, at an uniform rate irrespective of profit and loss. Even in the written statement it is not stated categorically that the Management paid bonus for a series of years without reference to any profit or loss. The statement mentions only the year 1959. On the contrary, it is the categorical statement of the Manager of the Company that bonus, if any, was always paid out of profits and in the year under consideration the Company sustained loss; and so, there was no question of payment of bonus. From the discussions above, it will be sufficiently clear that during the year under consideration the workmen resorted to go-slow policy for considerable time and as a result the production went down. Furthermore, due to this unjustifiable go-slow policy, the Company had to declare lock-out of the factory for about two months; and as a result, the Company could not earn any profit in that year. So, in these circumstances, there is no question of payment of profit sharing bonus. In fact, there is not an iota of evidence before this Tribunal to show that the Company earned any profit during the year 1960. So, I can at once hold that the Management had every justification for refusing to pay any profit sharing bonus as claimed.

The next question is whether the workmen were really entitled to any customary bonus for the year 1960. It is well settled by now that a customary bonus like Puja bonus is payable on the occasion of a ceremony like Pujas in Bengal. It is not in dispute that bonus was paid to these workmen in 1959 only for the first time at the time of Pujas. So, payment of bonus, if any, in one year during Pujas, does not make it customary. A payment of customary or traditional bonus to be binding on the Management must be so paid over an unbroken series of years for a sufficiently long period irrespective of profit and loss of the business. Such bonus must further be paid at a uniform rate [vide Grahams Trading Company (India) Ltd. and their workmen—1959 II, L.L.J. 393]. But in the present case, there is no sufficient evidence to prove that bonus was paid during unbroken series of years at a uniform rate and irrespective of profit and loss of the business. So I think, the workmen were not entitled to any customary or traditional bonus also for the year 1960. If bonus is payable simply out of profits and in years of profit only, no question of custom or tradition arises in this respect. I may also add that the workmen in order to entitle themselves to bonus should contribute to earning profits by helping production and should not do anything which contributes to a fall in production or to loss. But it is sufficiently proved that for the year under consideration, the workmen not only resorted to go slow policy, but also compelled the Management to declare a valid lock-out and thus contributed not only to a fall in production but to a serious loss as well. So, in these circumstances, the Management had every justification for refusing to pay bonus for the year 1960. Hence I find that the workmen are not entitled to any relief in respect of bonus for the year 1960. The issue is decided accordingly.

The final result is that the workmen concerned are not entitled to any relief either in respect of issue No. 1 or issue No. 2.

This is my award.

BEFORE THE FIRST INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

Present:

Shri S. N. GUHA ROY, Judge,
First Industrial Tribunal.

Appearances:

For the Union: Shri Nikhil Roy, Advocate.

For the Company: None.

In this reference under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, made by the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 5508-I.R.|IR|4L-73|60, dated 31st October 1960, of an industrial dispute between Messrs. Jay Hind Bus Service and their workmen represented by Burdwan Zilla Motor Karmachari Samity, the only issue is whether the dismissal of Shri Bhutnath Pal is justified and to what relief, if any, he is entitled.

The Union filed its written statement in due course but the Company refused to accept the notice served upon it with the result that the reference had to be taken up for hearing ex-parte. On behalf of the Union Shri Bhutnath Pal was examined to start with. As his evidence gave rise to a further question, namely, whether the dispute referred is an industrial dispute or merely an individual dispute, further evidence was adduced on behalf of the Union. This evidence consists of the statements of Shri Madan Chowdhury, President of the Burdwan Zilla Motor Karmachari Samity, Shri Haradhan Mandal, the conductor of Jai Hind Bus Service and Shri Rambriz Sahu that the Jay Hind Bus Service, had, apart from its Manager, only three employees, namely, its driver Shri Bhutnath Pal who on his own evidence appears to have been dismissed with effect from the 3rd of March 1960, Shri Haradhan Mondal, the conductor, who says he was its conductor up to the 25th|26th March 1960 though he is not sure of this date and Shri Rambriz Sahu says that he was a cleaner of Jay Hind Bus Service up to June 1960 and he became a member of the Samity in November 1959 and after he became a member of the Union the Proprietor dismissed him. Evidently, therefore, all these three employees who are members of the Samity were dismissed by the Jay Hind Bus Service prior to the reference on the 31st of October 1960. It appears from Ext. 4, a letter written by Shri Madan Chowdhury to the Jay Hind Bus Service, a copy of which appers to have been forwarded to the Assistant Labour Commissioner, that the dismissal of Shri Bhutnath Pal was taken up by the Union with the Company on the 23rd March 1960 and the first notice issued by the Assistant Labour Commissioner on the Jay Hind Bus Service for a joint conference is Ext. 5, dated 17th May 1960. There were subsequent notices also, the last of which Ext. 5(4) is dated 26th August 1960. The dispute, therefore, appears to have been taken up by the Burdwan Zilla Motor Karmachari Samity of which all the three employees namely Shri Bhutnath Pal (Ext. 2), Shri Haradhan Mondal (Ext. 1) and Shri Rambriz Sahu (Ext. 3) were members at the time. The Union still carries on this dispute but by the time the reference was made this Union appears to have included in its membership not any of the workmen of the Jay Hind Bus Service still in its employment but all its three ex-workmen. When the reference was made, the Jay Hind Bus Service in order to be able to run at all, must have employed other men. There is no evidence to show that any of the other men was also a member of this Samity. That being so, at the point of time when the reference was made, i.e., on the 31st of October 1960 the dispute between Shri Bhutnath Pal, a dismissed employee of Jay Hind Bus Service, espoused by his two colleagues, namely, Shri Haradhan Mondal and Shri Rambriz Sahu who also had by then been dismissed by the Jay Hind Bus Service may not have continued to be an industrial dispute by being espoused by any of the other workmen who were still in the employ of the Jay Hind Bus Service. As there is a complete absence of evidence to show that any of the workmen in the employ of the Jay Hind Bus Service at the time when the reference was made had espoused the cause of Shri Bhutnath Pal, the dismissed driver of Jay Hind Bus Service, the question arises whether there was at that time an industrial dispute in existence which entitled the State Government to make a reference under section 10.

It is clear from the materials on the record that when Shri Bhutnath Pal was dismissed, his cause was taken up by the Burdwan Zilla Motor Karmachari Samity, of which the two other workmen of the Jay Hind Bus Service, namely Shri Haradhan Mondal and Shri Rambriz Sahu were members. Consequently at that point of time this individual dispute was transformed into an industrial dispute. But there is no room of any presumption that once there is an industrial dispute it must continue to be so till it reaches the Tribunal through a reference. Shri Roy on behalf of the Union relied on the Kerala High Court decision in between Shamsuddin and State of Kerala and other, 1961, 1, L.L.J. 77 for the contention that the relevant point of time to be considered is not when the reference is made but when the industrial dispute is raised. Having regard to the facts of that case, I am inclined to think that the observations of the court do not throw much light on the point which arises in this case. In that case, three workmen were dismissed by the Company on 3rd October 1956. The workmen subsequently became members of Quilon Commercial and Industrial Employees' Association which they joined after resigning from the other Association. The first Association also filed a petition that it did not desire to prosecute the claim and wanted the Tribunal to drop the proceedings. The Tribunal allowed the workmen's prayer and there was an award. There was a writ petition against the award. That was dismissed and there was an appeal from that dismissal.Their Lordships of the Appellate Bench of the Kerala High Court followed a case of the Andhra High Court, namely, the case of Padarthy Ratnam & Co., Guntur, and Industrial Tribunal and others, 1958 II, L.L.J. 290 which the learned Judge of he Court dissented from in dismissing the writ petition and observed in one place that in determining whether the dispute is trade dispute or otherwise, the material point of time is when the act complained against has happened and not when the dispute is referred. For the purpose of the facts of that case, this observation was certainly appropriate. But it does not solve the question before us, for assuming it was an industrial dispute at the beginning, the question still remains if it continued to be so at the point when the reference was made. The jurisdiction to make the reference under section 10 is the appropriate Government's opinion that an industrial dispute exists or is apprehended. Where it has already arisen, the question of its apprehension is ruled out and the only question is if there is an industrial dispute when the reference is made. If there is an industrial dispute before it may end either by a settlement or by ceasing to be such a dispute. To my mind, therefore, in this type of cases, the relevant point of time when the industrial dispute must exist is the time of the reference.

On the 31st of October 1960 when the reference was made, the Burdwan Zilla Motor Karmachari Samity included in its membership, according to the evidence, all the three workmen of the Jay Hind Bus Service who were no longer in its service and none of the workmen still in its employ. It pressed the dispute even then as it does now. But the question is whether at that point of time it continued to be an industrial dispute. The test is how far it does satisfy the definition of an "industrial dispute" in section 2(k). It is a dispute, inter alia between "workmen and employer" in connection with the "non-employment of any person". The definition of "workman" in section 2(s) includes for the purposes of any proceeding in relation to an industrial dispute "any person who has been dismissed in connection with or as a consequence of that dispute or whose dismissal has led to that dispute". This definition would bring in Shri Bhutnath Pal whose dismissal led to the dispute but not the two other workmen, namely, Shri Haradhan Mondal and Shri Rambriz Sahu. Shri Bhutnath Pal would also come in under the definition of "industrial dispute" under section 2(k) but unless the two other workmen Shri Haradhan Mondal and Shri Rambriz Sahu could be also brought within the definition of workmen, the dispute over the dismissal of Shri Bhutnath Pal, espoused by Union of which no existing workmen of Jay Hind Bus Service were members and of which only two other ex-workmen of that service were members at the time of the reference cannot be held to have continued to be an industrial dispute. After all, the central core of an industrial dispute between an employer and his workmen is the rift in a continuing relationship of employer and employees and though this rift may be caused by the dismissal of a workman, this rift must be there and in order that this rift may be there, there must first of all be the relationship of employer and employees between the two parties to the contest. As this relationship did not exist in this case at the time of the reference between the Jay Hind Bus Service on the one hand and the three of its ex-workmen who alone are included in the membership of the Burdwan Zilla Motor Karmachari Samity now contesting the reference for the dismissed workman, it must be held that the reference was not legally valid, because of the time it was made, there was no industrial dispute in existence. There cannot, therefore, be an award in this case.

If, however, the reference were not invalid the issue under reference would have to be answered in the affirmative because on the ex-parte evidence of Shri Bhutnath Pal whom there is no reason to disbelieve he was dismissed simply because he became a member of the Union. This is obviously a case of victimisation. Had the reference accordingly been valid the workman would have been entitled to reinstatement. But as the reference is not valid there cannot be an award on the basis of this finding.

ORDERS BY THE ASSISTANT ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL, WEST BENGAL

Instructions regarding bills payable by the Accountant-General, West Bengal, within the current financial year.

No. TM/847.—12th February 1963.—In order to ensure payment before the close of the financial year, all travelling allowance, contingent, grant-in-aid and other bills payable within the year should be presented at the counter of this office by the 16th March 1963. The words "To be paid on or before the 31st March 1963" should be written prominently in red ink on the top of each bill. In respect of charges actually incurred or claims accruing on or after the 16th March, the bills should be presented with the utmost expedition without losing even a single day. It may be mentioned that during the last week of March this office is preoccupied with the passing of monthly bills, payable on the first working day of April.

2. Three clear working days are required by this office to complete all processes connected with the pre-audit of a bill. As such, bills marked payable within the 31st March 1963, may be received by this office up to the 26th March 1963. Only in exceptional cases at the express request of the sanctioning authorities, contingent bills involving large amounts and grant-in-aid bills will be received up to 28th March 1963 with the special permission of the Deputy Accountant-General (Administration) in respect of bills payable from the counter of Treasury Buildings and of the Senior Deputy Accountant-General in respect of bills payable from the counter of the other wing of this office, namely, at 4 Brabourne Road, Calcutta-1. In no case will any bill be received on the 29th and 30th March 1963.

3. On the fourth working day from the date of presentation of a bill the payee or his messenger should call at the delivery counter to demand payment. If for any reason payment cannot be obtained in that day, he should call on the next day, or on the second or third following day, should it become necessary. Any complaint regarding undue delay in payment should be lodged with the gazetted officer in charge of the section. No attempt should be made to get into direct touch with the sectional staff.

4. It should be particularly borne in mind that unpassed bills are not returned by post; they are required to be received back at the counter on surrender of tokens.

5. All possible care should be taken to see that the bills presented are free from defects and irregularities as there may not be time left for resubmitting the bills when once returned unpassed with audit obejction.

6. It will facilitate the payment of bills if the following instructions are brone in mind:—

(a) If the appropriation for the current year is likely to be or has already been exceeded, an additional appropriation should be obtained in time to meet the excess and the order sanctioning the additional appropriation attached to the bills.

(b) If any charge requiring sanction of a higher authority is claimed in a bill, a true copy of the sanction should be attached to it. As no payment can be made on the authority of copies of orders, the sanctioning authority should be requested to communicate the orders to this office in time.

(c) If no distribution of any appropriation has yet been made formal orders of the competent authority sanctioning the distribution should be attached to the bill.

A bill extract giving particulars of the major, minor and detailed heads of account to which the amount of the bill is chargeable and the designation of the officer controlling the expenditure should invariably be attached to the bills.

7. Between the 16th and 30th March care should be taken to check the Bill Register every day with a view to receive all payments in good time.

8. As a special concession to payees, the Cash Payment and Cheque Delivery counters of this office will be kept open till 4-30 p.m. on the 30th March. No payment will be made after that hour.

9. Establishment bill for March 1963 will be paid by this office by the 1st April 1963 instead of on the 30th March 1963.

ELECTION COMMISSION, INDIA

New Delhi-11, the 12th February 1963

NOTIFICATION

No. 82/19/62.—In pursuance of section 106 of the Representation of the People Act, 1951, the Election Commission hereby publishes the order pronounced on the 28th January 1963 by the Election Tribunal:

OFFICE OF THE ELECTION TRIBUNAL, CALCUTTA

Present

Shri A. K. SEN, Member,

Election Tribunal, Calcutta.

Election Petition No. 19 of 1962

Shri Jagannath Chatto

Shri Apurbalal Mazumdar

This is a petition under section 81 of the Representation of the People Act, 1951 (hereinafter to be referred to as the Act), challenging the election of respondent No. 1, Sri Apurbalal Majumdar, to the West Bengal Legislative Assembly from the No. 143 Panchla Legislative Assembly Constituency in the last General Election on the grounds stated therein. The petitioner has prayed that after a consideration of the said grounds the election of Respondent No. 1 be declared void and be set aside, and Respondent No. 2 be declared duly elected and returned as securing the largest number of votes.

Respondent No. 1, Sri Apurbalal Majumdar, Respondent No. 2, Sri Manilal Basu, and Respondent No. 3, Sri Sushil Bandyopadhya, were the three candidates for the aforesaid seat—and the symbol chosen by and allotted to them were Lion, two bullocks with yoke on, and star respectively.

The General Election for this Constituency was held on 19th February 1962 and the results were published on 27th February 1962. In the final result sheet, 17,886 valid votes were shown to have been polled in favour of Respondent No. 1, 17,867 in favour of Respondent No. 2, and 1,255 in favour of Respondent No. 3. Respondent No. 1 having thus secured 19 votes more than the next candidate, Respondent No. 2, the Returning Officer declared him as duly elected from the Panchla Legislative Assembly Constituency on the same day.

The election of Respondent No. 1 has been challenged not by any of the defeated candidates but by an elector of the said Constituency Sri Jagannath Chatto (alias Jagannath Chattopadhyay) whose name is entered as Serial No. 203 in part No. 102 of the Electoral Roll of the No. 143 Panchla Legislative Assembly Constituency. The petitioner deposited the sum of Rs. 2,000 in the Government Treasury at Howrah in favour of the Election Commission as security on 27th March 1962 and sent the petition to the Election Commissioner by Registered Post. It was received at the Office of the Election Commission, India, on 2nd April 1962.

The petitioner challenged the Election on the ground mentioned in clause (d)(iii) of sub-section (1) of section 100 of the Act, that is to say, he alleges that the Election of Respondent No. 1 was void and liable to be set aside because the result of the said election. in so far as it concerned the Respondent No. 1. was materially affected by the improper reception and refusals of some votes and/or by the reception of some votes which were void. His case is that some persons posing themselves to be the real electors and personating the latter. had cast votes for which the votes of as many as 41 real voters were tendered, and as such had not been or could not be counted for ascertainment and declaration of the result of the election, and the said 41 real electors, as far as the petitioner understands and believes, had cast their votes in favour of Respondent No. 2. The petitioner's further case is that as far as he had been able to ascertain, some persons had also personated for at least 18 electors named in the petition who had died before the Polling day, and had falsely cast votes in favour of Respondent No. 1. The petitioner contends that if the tendered votes of the 41 real electors be taken into account after rejecting the corresponding false votes, and the 18 void votes of the 18 dead electors mentioned in the petition be rejected, the Respondent No. 2 would be found to have received in fact a majority of the valid votes, and that but for the votes obtained by Respondent No. 1 due to false personation by his supporters as stated above, the Respondent No. 2 would have been declared to be duly elected and returned. In the premises he prays that the Tribunal should, after declaring the election of the Respondent No. 1 to be void, declare the Respondent No. 2 to have been duly elected under section 101 of the Act.

Copies of the petition were served on each of the respondents and also published in the Official Gazette according to law, and this Tribunal was constituted on 17th May 1962 under sub-section (3) of section 86 of the Act for the trial of the petition.

Notices regarding the Constitution of the Tribunal and the place of trial were issued to the petitioner and the Respondents. Respondent No. 3 did not appear before the Tribunal and is taking no part in the proceeding. Respondent No. 2 appeared and filed a written statement to state that the statements made in the Election petition were correct.

The petition is opposed by the Respondent No. 1 whose election is sought to be set aside. In his written statement filed on 14th July 1962, he questioned the maintainability of the petition on the ground that it was not in accordance with the provisions of section 83 of the Act, and contended that the allegation in the petition regarding the tendered votes were vague and lacking in material particulars and as such they should be ejected forthwith as otherwise it would turn the injury into a rambling and roving inquisition. As regards the dead voters, he denied that the vote of any actually dead elector had been falsely cast in his favour by any person. Both the grounds taken in the petition were thus untenable, according to him, and so his election was not liable to be set aside on these grounds.

Before filing his written statement on 14th July 1962, the Respondent No. 1 filed a petition of recrimination earlier on 18th June 1962 under section 97 of the Act alleging that the false personations regarding the real electors whose votes were tendered and the persons who died before the Polling day (he also gave a list of such persons in his petition) were made at the instance of the Respondent No. 2 and his supporters and it was he who was benefited by the same, and as such he would lead evidence to prove that the election of the Respondent No. 2 would have been void on these grounds if he had been the returned candidate, and hence even if the election of the Respondent No. 1 be set aside, the Respondent No. 2 should not be declared to be the returned candidate under section 101 of the Act as prayed for. Government Treasury receipt showing a security deposit of Rs. 2,000 as required under section 117 of the Act was enclosed with the petition.

The following issues were framed :

Issues

1. Is the election petition in order and maintainable in law ?
2. Can the allegations contained in sub-paragraph (a) of paragraph 6 of the petition be considered in the absence of full particulars?
3. Were the persons or any of them whose votes were tendered, the real voters ? In whose favour were the tendered votes of such real voters, if any, cast ? What would be the result of the election if such tendered votes, if any, were taken into account ?
4. Were the 18 persons mentioned in sub-paragraph (b) of paragraph 6 of the petition or any of them dead before the date of polling ? If so, in whose favour were the votes of the said dead electors cast ?
5. Has the result of the election, in so far as it concerns the Respondent No. 1, been materially affected by the improper reception, refusal or rejection of any vote or the reception of any vote which is void as alleged in paragraph 6 of the petition ?
6. Is the election of the Respondent No. 1 void and liable to be set aside ?
7. Is the Respondent No. 2 entitled to be declared duly elected ?
8. Is the petition of recrimination under section 97 of the Representation of the People Act, 1951, filed by the Respondent No. 1, in proper form and maintainable in law ?
9. Is the said petition of recrimination barred by limitation ?
10. Were the voters mentioned in sub-paragraph (b) of paragraph 6 of the said petition of recrimination or any of them dead before the date of polling ? If so, in whose favour were the votes of the said dead electors cast?
11. Did any bogus voter cast vote in favour of the Respondent No. 2 as alleged in sub-paragraph (a) of the particulars under paragraph 6 of the said petition of recrimination?
12. Did the Respondent No. 2 actually receive majority of valid votes ?

13. If the Respondent No. 2 were returned duly elected, would his election be void and liable to be set aside on the grounds alleged in paragraph 6 of the said petition of recrimination ?

Findings

Issues 1 and 2 : The Respondent No. 1 challenged the maintainability of the petition on two grounds, namely (1) defective verification, and (2) want of full particulars of the allegations on which the elections were sought to be set aside.

Section 83(c) of the Act requires that an election petition shall be signed by the petitioner and verified in the manner laid down in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, for the verification of pleadings.

According to Or. 6, r. 15(2), C.P.C., the person verifying shall specify by reference to the numbered paragraphs of the pleading, what he verifies of his own knowledge and what he verifies upon information received and believed to be true. Rule 31 of the Calcutta High Court Civil Rules and Order. Vol. I, which has the force of law requires that when any averment in an affidavit is verified upon information or belief the source or ground of such information should also be disclosed with sufficient particularity.

In the instant petition there are 8 paragraphs. The petitioner verified the statements made in paragraphs 1 to 5 and 8 to be true to his knowledge, and regarding the statements contained in paragraphs 6 [except the particulars in clauses (a) and (b) thereof] and 7, he stated in his verification that they were submissions, and those in clauses (a) and (b) of paragraph 6 (which contained the material allegations of this case relating to the tendered votes and dead voters) were said to be true to his belief.

The source or ground of belief of the most material averments in this petition was thus not disclosed and hence it was rightly contended by the Respondent No. 1 that the petition was not verified according to law. When this fact was pointed out at the time of the preliminary hearing of the petition on 27th November 1962 the petitioner filed an application for amendment of the verification. The application though opposed by the Respondent No. 1, was allowed by me for reasons stated in my Order 18, dated 27th November 1962. After amendment, the said portion of the verification runs as follows : ".....those in clauses (a) and (b) of paragraph 6 are true to my information received from the Respondent No. 2, Sri Manilal Basu and are true to my belief". This verification is according to the requirements of or 6, r. 15(2), C.P.C.— and I accordingly find that the election petition has been verified as required in section 83(c) of the Act.

The Respondent No. 1 challenged the maintainability of the petition on another ground as well— namely that it did not disclose the full particulars of the allegations made in clauses (a) and (b) of paragraph 6 as required under the law. I do not find any substance in this contention. Two of the grounds for declaring an election to be void, as stated in clauses (b) and (d)(iii) of sub-section (1) of section 100 of the Act, are corrupt practice and improper reception, refusal, or rejection of any vote or the reception of any vote which is void. In the instant petition, the petitioner has prayed for setting aside the election of the Respondent No. 1 not on the ground of any corrupt practice as defined in the Act but on the ground of improper reception, refusal or rejection of vote and/or the reception of votes which were void.

Regarding the full particulars of the allegations made in an election petition, all that clause (b) of section 83(1) of the Act requires is that the election petition shall set forth full particulars of any corrupt practice alleged. For the ground enumerated in clause (d)(iii) of the section, full particulars are not required to be disclosed. So if the petitioner does not disclose the full particulars of the improper reception and refusal of any vote or the reception of any void vote, the petition cannot be said to be not according to the provisions of section 83 of the Act, if, of course, there is no lack of bona fides on his part.

In the present case, the petitioner has given full particulars of the alleged dead voters in clause (b) of paragraph 6 of his petition. He has not, of course given full particualrs regarding the tendered votes. If he could not do so it was evidently because he was not one of the candidates for the said election, and as such it was not possible for him to know the same. Respondent No. 1 who was one of the candidates is in a much better position to know these particulars and it does not lie in his mouth to say that the petition is bad in the absence of such particulars.

I accordingly hold that the allegation contained in clause (a) of paragraph 6 of the petition can be considered even in the absence of full particulars regarding the same in the petition, and the petition cannot be said to be not maintainable in the absence of such particulars.

I do not find any defect in the frame of the petition after amendment, and hold it to be maintainable in law.

Both the Issues, Nos. 1 and 2, are thus found in favour of the petitioner and are accordingly answered as follows :

Issue No. 1 — Yes.

Issue No. 2 — Yes.

Issue No. 3 : The petitioner alleged in the petition that there were 41 tendered votes for this election. This fact does not appear to be denied by the elected candidate, Respondent No. 1. The Returning Officer for the Constituency (the District Magistrate, Howrah) also in reply to my requisition for records, stated in his Memo No. 955 Elec., dated 13th July 1962 (to be found in the record), that the sealed packets said to contain ballot papers relating to the 41 tendered votes were forwarded in a separate bundle. The number of these sealed packets was 28. On examining their contents at the time of their inspection by the parties on 12th November 1962, an account of only 38 tendered voters could he had. The discrepancy of 3 tendered voters seems to be due to the fact that the Returning Officer arrived at the figure 41 on counting the number of tendered voters for the Polling Station No. 51 to be 2 and that for the Polling Station No. 98 to be three as the chit attached to the bundle (which marks as Ext. 7) will show whereas the actual number of the tendered votes for the Polling Station 51 was nil as the list of tendered voter for this Station which mark as Ext. 2(i) will show, and that for Polling Station No. 98 was 2 as Ex. 2(b) will show. Deducting these three, from the Returning Officer's total of 41 the actual number of tendered votes for the Constituency seems to be 38 and not 41 as alleged in the petition. I could not, however, come to any definite finding on this point as no consolidated account of the ballot papers issued for the entire Constituency was available.

Whatever the actual number of the tendered voters for this Constituency may be, the petitioner examined only 8 such voters, — namely, Ashalata Gain (P.W. 2), Parobala Dasi (P.W. 4) Durgabala Dasi (P.W. 5), Golam Kibria (P.W. 6), Panchu Thander (P.W. 7), Jagannath Biswas (P.W. 8), Kamal Koley (P.W. 9) and Ram Chandra Goala (P.W. 16). I proceed to discuss their evidence one by one.

P.W. 2 Ashalata Gain : Ext. 2 is the list of tendered votes. Ext. I. the ballot paper and Ext. II, the tendered ballot papers relating to this witness. It appears from Ext. 2 that for the village Dhunki, there is a voter No. 41 named Ashalata Gain, wife of Nalin Gain, P.W. 2 claimed to be that Ashalata. But she gave the name of her village to be Melo and deposed that she did not know any village named Dhunki. On the evidence of P.W. 2, it cannot therefore be found that she is the voter Ashalata Gain of Dhunki. To cure the lacuna in her evidence, the petitioner examined her husband Nalin Gain (P.W. 3) and the President of the Bon Harishpur U.B. Prafulla Santra. (P.W. 10). But thereby his case seems to have been made worse. Both these witnesses, no doubt, deposed that Dhunki was the mouja of which Melo was a village. But none of them could say what was the distinction between a village and a mouja. The evidence of P.W. 3, the husband of P.W. 2, is not of much importance. P.W. 10, the President of the Bon Harishpur U.B., deposed that he knew the names of the villages within his Union and that Melo was a village within the mouja Dhunki in his Union. He too, seems to have no clear idea regarding villages and moujas and deposed that he had heard that a mouja was composed of several villages. Be that as it may, according to his evidence, separate lists of villages and moujas within the Union were maintained in his Office. Those lists would have been the best evidence on the point. But they were not produced. The confusion increased when this witness admitted that in the Panchla Union also, there was a village called Melo. This witness also cannot be said to be independant or disinterested inasmuch as he admitted that at present he belonged to the Congress Party, and that Respondent No. 2 was the Secretary of the School where he worked previously and was a member of the Managing Committee of the School where he works at present.

In this state of the evidence, it cannot be found beyond reasonable doubt that P.W. 2, Ashalata Gain, who gave the name of her village to be Melo, was the same person as Ashalata of the village Dunki who was a voter—and hence the vote tendered by her as per ballot paper No. 107080 (Ext II) cannot be accepted on rejecting the vote cast in the name of Ashalata Gain of Dhunki as per ballot papers No. 106510 (Ext. I). The evidence of the tendered voter, P.W. 2, thus makes no difference in the result of the election.

P.W. 4 Panubala Dasi : Exhibit 2(a) is the list of tendered votes, and Exts I/1 and II/1 are the ballot paper and tendered ballot paper respectively relating to this witness. I find no reason to disbelieve her or to doubt that she was not the real voter. The vote already cast in her name before she came to vote as per ballot paper, Ext. I/1, should therefore be rejected and in its place, the tendered ballot paper, Ext. II/1 on which P.W. 3 cast her vote should be accepted. In Ext. I/1, the seal is on the symbol of Lion whereas in Ex. II/1, it is on the pair of bullocks with yoke on. The result of the evidence of this witness, therefore, is that Respondent No. 1 losses one vote, and Respondent No. 2 gains one, and their relative position stands as follows :

Respondent No. 2—17868.

P.W. 5 Durgabala Dasi : Exhibit 2(b) (the list of tendered votes), Ext. A (the slip of the returning officer found inside the sealed envelope containing the said list), Exts. I/2 (the ballot paper) and I/8 and II/2 (the two tendered ballot papers given to tendered voter) and Ext. 3(d) (the marked Copy of the Electoral Roll) are the Exhibits which relate to this witness. According to Exts. 3(d) Durga Bala Dasi, wife of Tustu, aged (30) years of the mouja Kazirchara is voter No. 327 in the Electoral Roll, Part 139. The evidence of P.W. 5 is that she is that voter, but when she went to vote at the Polling Centre on the Polling day, she was told that her vote had already been cast whereupon she protested and showed to the Officers that she had no ink mark on her fingers when she was given two pieces of paper on one of which she put a stamp and on the other her finger impression was taken by the Officers. She was evidently referring to the tendered ballot paper and the list of tendered votes. She was emphatic that only one ballot paper and not two was given to her, and she did not put any ballot paper given to her in the ballot box. But Ext. 2(b) the list of the tendered votes read along with Ext. A. the slip of the Presiding Officer of the Polling Centre No. 98 where Durgabala voted, shows that the first tendered ballot paper No. 179370 (Ext. I 8) given to the voter was dropped into the ballot box through mistake when a 2nd ballot paper No. 179369 (Ext. II/2) was given to her. It is interesting to note that though two tendered ballot papers were given to this witness of the petitioner, in none of them she cast any vote in favour of the petitioner's candidate, Respondent No. 2. In the 1st tendered ballot paper, Ext. I/8, the voter, put the stamp on the lion, and in the 2nd tendered ballot paper, she did not put any stamp at all. It may perhaps be due to her nervousness on dropping the 1st tendered ballot paper into the ballot box through mistake. I should point out at this place that the list of tendered votes, Ext. 2(D) was neither signed nor dated by the Presiding Officer which shows how careless and negligent this particular Presiding Officer must have been. Be that as it may, the discrepancy in the evidence of P.W. 5 regarding the actual number of tendered ballot papers given to her may be due either to her lapse of memory as suggested by the petitioner or to the fact that P.W. 5 was not the person to whom the tendered ballot papers were given as suggested by the Respondent No. 1. This witness gave her age to be 45 or 46 years—and she did not look younger. But according to the Electoral Roll, the age of the voter Durgabala, was only 30 years. It was suggested to P.W. 5 that she was not the voter, Durga Bala, and that the voter was the sister of Satish Mandal of the same name. Though P.W. 5 denied the 1st part of the suggestion, she could not deny that Satish Mondal's sister was also named Durga Bala. The Respondent No. 1 did not remain satisfied with only making the suggestion. He examined a witness (R.W. 6) who gave her name to be Durga Bala, wife of Tustu, and age to be 38 years. From the point of view of the age, she was much nearer Durgabala of the Electoral Roll. The evidence of this witness is that her father-in-law's house was at Burikhali and after the death of her husband, she came to live with her brother, Satish Mondal, at Kazir Chara, where she had been residing for the last 8 or 10 years, and it was she who was the voter Durga Bala in the voter's list of Kazirchara, and that she was not a voter of Burikhali and that on the Polling day, she went to the Polling Station and cast her vote. This witness thus took upon herself the responsibility of casting the vote as per ballot paper No. 178522 (Ext. I/2). The witness could not be shaken in cross-examination and her demeanour was satisfactory. If the name of Durga Bala, wife of Tustu, also appeared in the voter's list of Burikhali, the witness could be given a lie direct on the production of the said voter's list. But the petitioner on whom the onus of establishing the identity of the tendered voters examined by him lay, did not produce the voters list of Burikhali, and from its non-production, it can be presumed that Durga Bala was not a voter in the said list.

On account of the discrepancies regarding age and the number of tendered ballot papers given to P.W. 5, and in the face of the evidence of R.W. 6, the identity of P.W. 5 with the Durga Bala in the voters list of Kazirchara cannot be found to be established. So the vote as per ballot paper No. 178522 (Ext. I/2) cannot be rejected, and the vote as per the tendered ballot paper No. 179369 (Ext. II/2) or 179370 (Ext. I/8) cannot be accepted. Both Exts. I/8 and II/2 are to be rejected also because there is no stamp on any symbol in Ext. II/2, and Ext. I/8 though a tendered ballot paper was dropped into the ballot box. It is settled law that a tendered ballot paper dropped into a ballot box should be regarded as a rejected ballot paper. (Vide the Well-known Buckrose Case reported in Sandars and Keep's reports of the Election Petitions, Vol. JV, 1893, at page 110). The rejection of the tendered ballot papers, Ext. I/8, however entails the rejection of a vote of the Respondent No. 1. Because Exts. I/8 was not treated as a rejected ballot paper as the ballot paper account of Polling Station No. 98 [Ext. 4(h)] would show. According to this account, 16 ballot papers were rejected at the time of counting of the votes of this Polling Station, and in the bundle of used ballot papers for this Polling Station 16 rejected ballot papers were found apart from Ex. I/8. It therefore follows that treating Ext. I/8 to be a valid ballot paper, the vote cast on it was counted at the time of he counting of voes—and this vote must be rejected. The stamp in Ex. I/8 is on the symbol of lion—and hence one vote must be deducted from the total of Respondent No. 1 on account of the rejection of Ext. I/8 now.

In the result, the Respondent No. 1 loses one vote as a result of the evidence of P.W. 5 and the relative position becomes:

Respondent No. 1—17884.

Respondent No. 2—17868.

P.W. 6 Golam Kibria : Exhibit 2(c), the list of tendered votes, Ext. 3, the marked Copy of the Electoral Roll, Ext I/3, the ballot paper, and Ext. II/3, the tendered ballot paper, are the Exhibits relating to this witness. The particulars of himself (namely father's name, age and village as given by this witness agreed with those of the voter No. 278, Golam Kibria in the Electoral Roll, Part 79 (Ext. 3). But the snag lies in the admitted fact that this witness is a hawker by profession and in his hawker's licence his name is written as Golam Ali and not Golam Kibria. The reason given by the witness for this change was that he found the name Golam Ali to be easier to write—not at all a convincing reason, I must say. In all probability, the father's name of the hawker also appears in his hawking licence. If P.W. 6 had proved by producing his hawker's licence that Golam Ali's father was also the late Kader, it would have lent some support to his explanation. But the license was not produced. In these circumstances, it will not be safe to find that P.W. 6 was the voter No. 278 Golam Kibria in the Electoral Roll, Part 79 (Ext. 3). The vote cast as per ballot paper No. 136671 (Ext. I/3) issued in the name of the voter Golam Kibria, cannot therefore be rejected in preference to the tendered vote as per ballot paper No. 137479 (Ext. II/3) and the result is that the evidence of P.W. 6 does not make any difference in the relative positions of the Respondents 1 and 2.

P.W. 7 Panchu Khandar : Exhibit 2(d), the list of tendered votes, Ext. I/4, the ballot paper, and Ext. II/4, the tendered ballot paper, relate to this witness. While giving the particulars to the Bench Clerk at the time of filing up the heading of his deposition, this witness gave his name to be Panchu Khandar. But in his deposition, he told his name to be Panchu Thandar and admitted that in the Mill where he worked, his name was recorded as Panchu Thandar. In the list of tendered votes [(Ext. 2(d)] he signed as Panchu Thandar [(vide Ex. 2(d)/1]. He also signed his deposition as Panchu Thandar. In his examination-in-Chief, he, of course, said that he was also called Thandar, but he was constrained to admit in his cross-examination that in the voters list of his village, there were a few voters whose surnames were recorded as Thandar. In these circumstances, it is difficult to understand why the surname of this witness was recorded to be Khandar in the voters list though everywhere, else he recorded and signed his surname as Thandar. Then again, this witness admitted that in the last General Election, he worked as a volunteer and arrived at the Polling Station at 7-30 a.m. when the Polling started and his duty as a volunteer was to get the voters who were in his hand and their number would be many. It is difficult to believe that somebody else would dare to personate this witness and vote as such at the same polling centre—where he was so actively working as a volunteer from the time that the polling started. It was suggested by the Respondent No. 1 that during the closing hours of the poll when everybody at the Polling Station got tired and there was some slackness all round, this enthusiastic volunteer took advantage of the situation and posing as Panchu Khandar though he was really Panchu Thandar, cast a tendered vote only with the object of having the vote of the real Panchu Khandar who might have voted for the rival candidate, rejected if necessary. The force of this suggestion cannot be denied.

The law requires a very satisfactory and rigorous proof for proving the identity of the tendered voter in an Election Petition, and the uncorroborated testimony of P.W. 7, in the face of the admitted facts and circumstances discussed above, falls far short of the requirement for such a proof. I therefore hold that the identity of P.W. 7 with the voter No. 343. Panchu Khandar of the village Shahpur, could not be satisfactorily established—and hence the vote cast as per the ballot paper No. 145148 (Ext. I/4) issued in the name of the said voter cannot be rejected and the tendered vote cast as per the ballot paper No. 145719 (Ext. II/4) accepted in its place. It was argued from the side of the respondent No. 1 that as the tendered ballot paper, Ext. II/4, was not certified under the signature of the Presiding Officer as required under the law, it should be rejected on this ground alone. I do not find any substance in this argument as it is a settled law that the validity of the tendered ballot paper is not affected by the absence of any such certificate (vide the well-known Stepney Case reported at page 34 in the Reports of the Election Petition, ibid).

In the result, the relative position of the Respondent Nos. 1 and 2 is not affected by the evidence of P.W. 7.

P.W. 8 Jagannath Biswas: As this witness is a resident of the same village Shahpur as the last witness and their Polling Station was the same, his name also appears in the same list of tendered voter, Exts. 2(d), Exts. I/5 and II/5 are the ballot papers and tendered ballot papers relating to him. That he is Jagannath Biswas is also proved by the Respondent No. 1's witness No. 7, Balaram Adak who works in the same Mill with the witness. The witness deposed that his surname Biswas, has an alias namely Bishakodh or Biskod. This was disputed and R.W. 7 was examined only to show that in the records of the Mill, he was registered as Jagannath Biswas without any alias for the surname. The marked Copy of the Electoral Roll for the Polling Station No. 56 has not been sent by the Returning Officer, as it was not called for. The record shows that the petitioner called for the marked Copy of only those Electoral Rolls in which the names of the alleged dead voters were recorded —and all such Electoral Rolls have been sent. Be that as it may, in the absence of the relevant Electoral Roll, we cannot say how the name of Jagannath was recorded there. In the list of tendered voter, Exts. 2(d), it is recorded as Jagannath Biswas—and from this we may presume that in the Electoral Roll also the name of this voter was recorded as Jagannath Biswas. Whether his surname has any alias or not, the witness No. 7 of the Respondent No. 1 himself has proved that he is Jagannath Biswas.

The identity of this witness with the voter No. 244 Jagannath Biswas in the Electoral Roll of the village Shahpur being thus satisfactorily established, the vote cast as per the ballot paper No. 144965 issued the name of this voter (Ext. I/5) should be rejected and in its place, the tendered vote cast as per the tendered ballot paper No. 145720 (Ext. II/5) should be accepted. In Ext. I/5, the seal is on the symbol of lion and in Ext. II/5, it is on the pair of bullock with yoke on.

In the result, the Respondent No. 1 loses one vote and the Respondent No. 2 gains one vote by the evidence of P.W. 8—and their relative position stands as follows:

Respondent No. 1—17883.

Respondent No. 2—17869.

P.W. 9 Kamal Kumar Kolay: Ext. 2(e) is the list of tendered vote, Ext. I/6 is the ballot paper and Ext. II/6 is the tendered ballot paper relating to the witness. On perusing his evidence, I find no reason—nor could any be even suggested—for disbelieving him.

Accepting his evidence, I therefore find that P.W. 9 is the voter No. 184, Kamal Kumar Koley of mouja Santoshpur—and hence the vote cast as per ballot paper No. 149723 (Ext. I/6) issued in the name of the voter should be rejected and the vote cast as per the tendered ballot paper No. 150190 (Ext. II/6) accepted in its place. Ext. I/6, however, was treated as a rejected ballot paper at the time of the counting as there was no seal on any symbol in it, and in Ext. II/6 the seal is on the pair of bullock with yoke on. The result of the evidence of this witness therefore is that though the Respondent No. 1 does not lose any vote on account of the rejection of the Ballot Paper Ext. I/6, the Respondent No. 2 gains one vote on account of the acceptance of the tendered ballot papers, Ext. II/6, and the relative position of these Respondents accordingly becomes as follows:

Respondent No. 1—17883.

Respondent No. 2—17870.

P.W. 16 Ram Chandra Goala: He is the last tendered voter examined by the petitioner and for reasons stated in my Order No. 28, dated 5th January 1963, I permitted him to examine this witness even after the close of his evidence.

Ext. 2(f) is the list of tendered votes, Ext. I/7 is the ballot papers, Ext. II/7 is the tendered ballot paper, and Ext. 4(b) is the ballot paper account of the relevant Polling Station relating to this witness. As in the case of the last witness, I find no reason to disbelieve this witness as well, and relying on his evidence, I accordingly hold that P.W. 16 is the voter No. 692, Ram Chandra Goala of North Mill, Fort Gloster. Hence the vote cast as per ballot paper No. 163738 issued in the name of the said voter (Ext. 1/7) is rejected and the vote cast as per the tendered ballot papers No. 164400 (Ext. II/7) is accepted. The seal in Ext. 1/7 is on the lion and in Ext. II/7 it is on the pair of bullock with yoke on.

The result of the evidence of this witness is that the Respondent No. 1 loses still another vote and the Respondent No. 2 gains one more vote, and their relative positions become like this:

Respondent No. 1—17882.

Respondent No. 2—17871.

Besides the 8 tendered voters examined by him, the petitioner summoned and filed haziras of 7 more tendered voters—namely (1) Rani Bala Dasi, (2) Menaka Mondal, and (3) Sulata Khere (on 27th November 1962) and (4) Abdur Sattar, (5) Belat Ali Sk., (6) Chakra Dhar Jana, and (7) Biswanath Rajbhar (on 28th November 1962) but did not examine them as his learned Counsel, on examining the records relating to these witnesses, found that no useful purpose would be served by examining them, mostly because the seals were found to have been fixed on the same symbol both in the ballot paper and the corresponding tendered ballot paper issued in their respective names (cf. Abdur Sattar, Chakradhar Jain, etc.).

The record shows that the petitioner summoned 4 more tendered voters—namely (1) Saiada Khatun, (2) Ganga Bala Manna, (3) Sattar Ali, and (4) Asto Sardar. But for reasons we do not know, their haziras were not filed nor were they examined.

There was one more tendered voter, Nudi Bewa for whom the petitioner neither took out any summons nor filed any hazira when witnesses were being examined on his side but long after when the recording of the evidence was practically closed, he filed a petition supported by an affidavit by Nudi Bewa praying for permission to examine her for reasons stated therein. But for reasons stated in my Order No. 28, dated 5th January 1963, the permission could not be granted.

It thus appears that the petitioner concerned himself with 20 tendered voters (out of whom he examined 8, filed haziras for but did not examine 7, summoned but did not file haziras for 4 and for one he neither took out summons nor filed haziras though he wanted to examine her at a very late stage and—as a result, he is found to have improved the position of his supporter, Respondent No. 2, by 8 votes.

Out of the remaining tendered voters, the Respondent No. 1 examined 7—namely (1) Laksmi Bala (R.W. 1), (2) Sukhada Bala (R.W. No. 2), (3) Mongala Dasi (R.W. 3), (4) Nabi Bux (R.W. 4), (5) Forhad (R.W. 5), (6) Ranibala Ghosh (R.W. 8), and (7) Saraju Bala Dasi (R.W. 11). I now proceed to examine their evidence one by one.

R.W. 1 Laksmi Bala: Exhibit B, the list of tendered votes, Ext. III, the ballot paper and Ext. IV, the tendered ballot paper relate to this witness. This witness deposed in a frank and straightforward manner and her demeanour was satisfactory. It was suggested that her husband's name was Jiban and not Krisna Das and that another woman named Laksmi lived in the house of her landlady, Radha. She denied the suggestion emphatically and there is no evidence whatsoever to support the suggestion.

I accept the evidence of this witness and by relying thereon, hold that R.W. 1 is the voter No. 1256 of Paschin (West) Bauria. The vote cast as per ballot No. 177740 (Ext. III) issued in the name of this voter is accordingly rejected and the tendered vote cast as per the tendered ballot papers No. 178459 (Ext. IV) is accepted in its place. In Ex. III, the seal is on the pair of bullocks with yoke on whereas on Ext. IV, it is on the lion.

In the result, Respondent No. 1 gains one vote and Respondent No. 2 loses one vote, and their relative position becomes as follows:

Respondent No. 1—17883.

Respondent No. 2—17870.

R.W. 2 Sukhada Bala Dasi: Exhibit B(1) is the list of the tendered votes, Ext. III/1 is the ballot paper and Ext. IV/1 is the tendered ballot paper relating to this witness. Her evidence makes no difference because on both the ballot paper and the tendered ballot paper, the seal was on the same symbol, lion.

R.W. 3 Mongala Dasi: Exhibit 2(b) is the list of tendered votes, Ext. III/2 is the ballot paper and Ext. IV/2 is the tendered ballot paper relating to this witness—and for the same reason, the evidence of this witness also makes no difference.

R.W. 4 Nabi Bux: Exhibit B(2) the list of tendered votes, Ext. III/3, the ballot paper and Ext. IV/3, the tendered ballot paper relate to this witness. His specimen signature was taken in Court and marked Ext. V. On comparing it with the signature of the tendered voter, Nabi Bux in Ext. B(2) [Ext. B(2/1)], they appear to me to be by the same person. In the specimen signature the witness signed as Nabi Bux and his evidence is also to the effect that he signs as Nabi Bux and does not write anything before his name. But in the list of tendered votes, Ext. B(2), the signature, Ext. B(2)/1, is Sk. Nabi Bux. Much capital was tried to be made out of it—but I am not inclined to attach much importance to this difference in signature. My attention was also drawn to that portion of the evidence of this witness where he said that he was told by the men to whom he showed the witness's summons what he would have to depose, and he was deposing according to their instruction. It was argued that he was therefore a tutored witness. R.W. 4 appeared to me to be a simple, unsophisticated and almost illiterate villager who deposed in a frank and straightforward manner, and concealed nothing. It is a matter of common knowledge how such villagers behave on receiving a witnesses summons from Court. They usually consult some village Matabbar and act according to their instructions. That was exactly what this witness did—and for that reason I cannot call him a tutored witness. Considering all these and remembering his demeanour at the time he deposed I am not inclined to disbelieve him. I accordingly accept his evidence and by relying thereon hold that R.W. 4 is the voter No. 437 of Paschin Panchla. I therefore reject the vote cast as per the ballot paper No. 129485 (Ext. III/3) issued in the name of the said voter and accept the vote cast as per the tendered ballot paper No. 130070 (Ext. IV/3). This tendered ballot paper is also not certified under the signature of the Presiding Officer as required under the rules. But for this omission due to the carelessness and negligence of the Presiding Officer, the voter cannot suffer. The seal in Ext. III/3 is on the pair of bullocks with yoke on whereas the seal Ext. IV/3 is on the lion.

As a result of the evidence of this witness, Respondent No. 1 gains one vote and Respondent No. 2 loses one -and their relative position becomes:

Respondent No. 1—17884.

Respondent No. 2—17869.

R.W. 5 Forhad: The Exhibits relating to this witness are Ext. 2(C), the list of tendered votes, Ext. 2(c)/2, the signature of the tendered voter, Forhad thereon, Ext. C, the note of the Presiding Officer found inside the envelope containing the list, Ext. III/4, the ballot paper, Ext. IV/4 of the tendered ballot paper, Ext. 3, the marked copy of the Electoral Roll, Part No. 79, where the name of the tendered voter appears, Ext. D, the ballot paper account of the Polling Station No. 47 where the tendered voter, Forhad, voted, and Ext. V/1 the specimen signature of the witness. The particulars given by this witness in his evidence agreed with those given in the Electoral Roll—and the incident regarding the tendered ballot paper on the polling day as narrated by him was corroborated by the Presiding Officer's note, Ext. C. No reason could be suggested for disbelieving the witness — nor do I find any on persuing his evidence. Relying thereon I accordingly hold that R.W. 5 is the voter No. 453 of mouja Panchla—and hence the vote cast as per the ballot paper No. 136563 (Ext. III/4) issued in the name of this voter is rejected. The seal in this ballot paper is on the pair of bullocks with yoke on. In ordinary course, the vote cast by the witness as per the tendered ballot paper No. 137480 (Ext. IV/4) should have been accepted. But that cannot be done in the present case as the Presiding Officer's note Ext. C, shows, and the witness also deposed to the same effect, that the tendered ballot paper No. IV/4 was wrongly dropped into the ballot box. This ballot paper should therefore be rejected. But on account of its being dropped into the ballot box. and it being in order, it was accepted to be a valid ballot paper and the vote cast therein was included at the time of the counting. This would appear from the fact that according to Ext. D, there were 16 rejected ballot papers for this Polling Station and apart from this ballot paper a packet of 16 such ballot papers were found in the bundle of the used ballot papers for the said Station. The vote cast by it in favour of Respondent No. 1 should therefore be deducted from his total. The net result is that both Respondent No. 1 and Respondent No. 2 lose one vote as a result of the evidence of this witness and their relative position thus remains unaltered.

R.W. 8 Ranibala Ghosh: Exhibit B(3) is the list of tendered votes, Ext. III/5 is the ballot paper, and Ext. IV/5 is the tendered ballot paper relating to this witness. The petitioner did not cross-examine this witness and accepted his evidence—for good reasons. On the ex parte evidence of this witness, which I find no reason to disbelieve, I hold that she is the voter No. 1464 of mouja Chakkasi. Hence the vote cast as per ballot paper No. 182281 (Ext. III/5) issued in her name is rejected and the vote cast as per the tendered ballot paper No. 181050 (Ext. IV/5) is accepted. The seal on Ext. III/5 being on the lion, the Respondent No. 1 loses one vote on account of the rejection of the ballot paper—and there being no seal on any symbol on Ext. IV/5, no vote was cast thereby and hence the Respondent No. 1 does not gain anything by the acceptance of the tendered ballot paper. The net result is that the Respondent No. 1 loses one vote as a result of the evidence of his own witness, R.W. 8, Ranibala Ghosh. It was evidently for this reason that the petitioner did not challenge the evidence of this witness.

Be that as it may, as a result of the evidence of this witness, the relative position of the respondent comes to this—

Respondent No. 1—17882.

Respondent No. 2—17868.

P.W. 11 Sarajubala Devi: Exhibit B is the list of tendered votes, Ext. E is the Presiding Officer's note found inside the envelope containing the list, Ext. III/6 is the ballot paper and Ext. IV/6 is the tendered ballot paper relating to this witness. Ext. B shows that the Presiding Officer forgot to take the signature or thump impression of this tendered voter in the column No. 5 of the list of tendered votes—another example showing how carelessly some of the Presiding Officers worked. Be that as it may, neither party gains or loses anything whether the evidence of this witness be accepted or rejected. If it is rejected the vote cast by the tendered ballot paper cannot be accepted on rejecting that cast by the ballot paper, and the position of the Respondents remain unaltered. If it is accepted, Ext. III/6 in which the seal is on the pair of bullocks with yoke on will, no doubt be rejected, but Ext. IV/6, the tendered ballot paper, in which the seal is on the lion will also have to be rejected as it was dropped into the ballot box as reported by the Presiding Officer in his note, Ext. E and as the vote cast by it appears to have been counted at the time of counting of votes, the Respondent No. 1 will lose one vote, and the position will remain unaltered.

Besides examining the 7 tendered voters above-named the Respondent No. 1 filed haziras of three more tendered voters on 30th November 1962, namely—(1) Anima Das, (2) Gafur Sk., and (3) Dayem Ali, but for the same reason for which the petitioner did not examine the tendered voters whose hazira had been filed by him, the Respondent No. 1 also did not examine them because on perusing the records, his Counsel was satisfied that no useful purpose would be served thereby.

The Respondent No. 1 thus concerned himself with 10 tendered voters—and as a result thereof he improved his position by three votes.

After a scrutiny of the evidence of the tendered voters examined by the parties the relative position of the Respondents thus comes to this—

Respondent No. 1—17881.

Respondent No. 2—17868.

After the close of the hearing of the petition, the Respondent No. 2 filed two petitions on 7th January 1963. One was for rejecting the tendered ballot papers marked Exts. I/8, IV/6 and IV/4 issued to P.W. 5, Durgabala Dasi, R.W. 1, Sarajubala Devi and R.W. 5, Forhad on account of their being dropped into the ballot box as per the reports of the Presiding Officers, Exts. A, E and C and for deducting one vote from the total of the Respondent No. 1 for each of these ballot papers for reasons stated therein. In the other petition, it was prayed that the records relating to the tendered votes sent by the Returning Officer might be searched for ascertaining if there were more such reports from Presiding Officers regarding tendered ballot papers dropped into the ballot boxes, and if so, such tendered ballot papers might be rejected and necessary corrections made in the totals of the Respondents. In my Order No. 29 passed on the same day (7th January 1963) I observed that these petitions would be considered and discussed in the judgment.

As regards the 1st petition, no order is called for inasmuch as I have rejected the tender ballot papers Exts. I/8, IV/6 and IV/4 dropped into the ballot boxes—and made necessary corrections in the totals of the Respondents.

Allowing the paryer made in the other petition, I searched all the 28 envelopes said to contain the lists of tendered votes sent by the Returning Officer —and after such search, I could find only 2 similar reports by the Presiding Officers. One was in the envelope containing the list of the tendered votes for the Polling Station No. 32, Gondal Panchanantala U.P. School. In the said list voter No. 144 of the village Gondalpara, Kripabala Dasi, is named to be the tendered voter—and the number of the tendered ballot paper given to her is stated to be 125690. In his report found inside the envelope containing the list, the Presiding Officer has stated that the tendered voter pushed her ballot paper in the ballot box. The list of tendered votes for Polling Station No. 32 is marked Ext. 2(g) and the Presiding Officer's report is marked Ext. 6. The relevant tendered ballot paper No. 125690 is traced from the bundle of the used ballot papers for the Station, and marked Ext. II/8. The ballot paper account for this Polling Station is marked Ext. 4(g). Ext. 4(g) shows that there were 15 rejected ballot papers for this Polling Station—and Ext. II/8 was traced from the bundle of these rejected ballot papers. The reason for rejecting it was, as Ext. II/8 would show, that the seal was on two symbols. Dropping of this tendered ballot paper into the ballot box therefore did not affect the position of the Respondents.

The other report was found in the envelope containing the list of tendered votes for the Polling Station No. 71. The list is marked Ext. 2(h) and the report is marked Ext. 6(a). In the report, Ext. 6(a) it is stated that the tendered ballot paper No. 16760 given to the voter, being voter No. 1250, Sheila Adak, was dropped by the Presiding Officer in the ballot box by mistake. From Ext. 2(b) we get the number of the tendered ballot paper to be 157670. The said ballot paper is recovered from the bundle of used ballot papers for this Station—and is marked Ext. II/9. The seal on it is on the symbol 'Lion' Being otherwise a valid ballot paper it appears to have been counted at the time of the counting. As this ballot paper was dropped into the ballot box—not by the voter but by the Presiding Officer, the principle on which the Buckrose case was decided, does not apply and it is doubtful if it can be said to be an invalid ballot paper. Even assuming it to be so, and rejecting the tendered ballot paper as also the vote cast by it in favour of the Respondent No. 2, the Respondent No. 1 would at the worst lose one more vote and his total would be reduced to 17881 whereas the total of the Respondent No. 2 remains the sam 17868.

The petitions filed by the Respondent No. 2 on 7th January 1963 are disposed of accordingly.

We thus get an account of 32 tendered voters—15 examined by the parties, 10 not examined by them in spite of filing their haziras as the parties were satisfied that no useful purpose would be served thereby, four summoned but not examined by the petitioner, the records of 2 were considered by me on the prayer of the petitioner, and the prayer of the petitioner for examining one was refused. Neither party took any steps or prayed for examining the remaining 6 tendered voters, namely Tara Dasi of Polling Station No. 40, Maiana Bibi and Sunil Das of Polling Station No. 55, Nazir Ahmed of Polling Station No. 50, Narasing Panta of Polling Station No. 100, and the tendered voter of Polling Station No. 73 whose name could not be ascertained.

It is thus found after a scrutiny of the tendered votes in the light of the evidence available before the Tribunal that the difference in the totals of valid votes polled by Respondents Nos. 1 and 2 is reduced to 13 from 19, and their totals become as follows:

Respondent No. 1—17881.

Respondent No. 2—17868.

Issue No. 3 is disposed of accordingly.

Issue No. 4: Now I come to the alleged dead voters.

In clause (b) of paragraph 6 of his petition, the petitioner gave a list of 18 electors of the Constituency who were alleged to have died before the Polling day, namely the 19th February 1962 (corresponding to the 7th Falgun, 1368 B.S.). Of these, 4, namely, Hochen Bux [voter No. 1027 in Part 84 of the Electoral Roll—Ext. 3(a)], Hachena Bibi [voter No. 817 in Part 83—Ext. 3(a)], Isuf Ali [voter No. 179 in part 79 (Ext. 3)] and Majid Sk. [voter No. 563 Part 90—Ext. 3(b)] are admitted to have died before the Polling day by the Respondent No. 1 as well in his written statement. Of the remaining 14, one, namely Saraswati Dasi [(voter No. 866 in Part 139 of the Electoral Roll—(Ext. 3(d)] is alive according to the evidence of the petitioner's witness No. 12, Amanat Ali Molla, no evidence was adduced regarding one, namely Radharani Audhicary [voter No. 1157 in Part 148—(Ext. 3(e)] and 7, namely Bhola Mondal [voter No. 589 in Part 155 (Ext. 3g], Kalipada Seat [voter No. 152 in Part 155 (Ext. 3g)], Amar Shaik [voter No. 144 in Part 121 (Ext. 3c)], Year Ali Mullick [voter No. 156 in Part 121 (Ext. 3c)], Jaynal Mullick [voter No. 357 in Part 121 (Ext. 3c)], Icha Haque Porey [voter No. 95 in Part 139,—Ext. 3(d)] and Sanyasi Barik [voter No. 818 in Part 139—Ext. 8(d)] did not vote as the corresponding marked copies of the electoral rolls (whose Exhibit numbers are mentioned by the side of their names) would show. The evidence of P.Ws, 1 and 11 who spoke about the deaths of Bhola Mondal, Kalipada Seat, Amir Sk., Year Ali and Joynal therefore serves no useful purpose.

We are thus left with the 5 persons, Loksman Porel [voter No. 737 in Part 139—Ext. 3(d)], Sivaram Ghosh [voter No. 735 in Part 156—Ext. 3(h)], Sudhir Choulay [voter No. 913 in Part 155—Ext. 3 (g)], Pear Ali Mullick [voter No. 1091 in Part 154 —Ext. 3(f)], and Jabed Shaik [voter No. 541 in Part 148—Ext. 3(e)]. The Respondent No. 1 did not admit that they died before the Polling day. The petitioner has led evidence to prove the same and I now proceed to discuss the evidence on this point.

P.W. 12 Amanat Ali Molla: An ex-Member of the Bowria U.B., and a resident of the village Kazirchara, has deposed that Laksman Porel of his village died about 4 years ago. According to his evidence, he saw the voters list and persued the same before the last General Election and found the name of Laksman in the voters list—still he did not think it necessary to bring the fact to the notice of the persons concerned with the correction of the voters list. That is rather unsual for an ex-Member of the U.B. like him. He admitted that he belonged to the Congress Party and voted for the Congress in the last General Election. This makes him an interested witness. On 30th November 1962, the petitioner filed a petition for time and one of the grounds was to summon the particular doctor who treated Laksman in his last illness. There also the particular doctor was not named—and the only reason that could be adduced for not examining the said doctor, if any, earlier, was that his name could not be ascertained earlier. The reason did not appear to me to be convincing—and so the prayer could not be allowed at that late stage. No member of the family of Lakshman was also examined. The Respondent No. 1, on the other hand, examined P.W. No. 10 Banku Mondal, a School friend of Laksman's son, Mathur, residing at a distance of 2 or 3 minutes walk from Laksman's house, who deposed that he went to Lakshman's house occasionally—and he saw him living even 2 months back. His evidence could not be shaken by cross-examination—and he is certainly a more competent to speak about Laksman's death than P.W. 12 Amanat.

In this state of the evidence, I cannot find, the death of Lakshman Porel to have been satisfactorily proved.

P.W. 13 Bejoy Krishno Chatterjee: The Secretary of the Bowria U.B. and a resident of Burikhali was examined to prove the death of Sibaram Ghosh and Sudhir Chauby of the same village. He deposed that Sudhir and Sibaram lived at a distance of 2 or 3 minutes walk from his house and both of them died before the last General Election, Sudhir dying about a year ago and Sibaram about 11 months ago. He may be a competent witness but he also appears to be an interested witness. Bhabataran Babu, the President of the U.B. of which he was the Secretary, was found from his evidence to be taking an undue interest in this trial—and it could not be denied by the witness that he was making tadbir for Respondent No. 2 in this trial. Both he and the witness belong to the same Political Party to which the Respondent No. 2 belongs — namely the Congress Party. It was suggested that he was deposing falsely under the influence of Bhabataran Babu. The suggestion though denied has some force.

On 30th November 1962, the petitioner filed a petition for time and one of the grounds was to call for the records of the Chittaranjan Cancer Hospital where Sivaram was said to have died before the election. The petition could not be allowed on account of its delay. If the time of Sibaram's death could be proved from Hospital records, they should have been called for much earlier.

Then again, if the witness, the Secretary of the Union Board, knew about the death of Sibaram and Sudhir so well, I find no reason why the deaths were not recorded in the death Register inasmuch as the evidence of P.W. 11, a Vice-President of an U.B., is that the information of death of any resident of the Union is brough to the Secretary by the village Chowkidar and the Secretary communicates the news to the Sanitary Office where the death register is maintained. But when P.W. 13, the Secretary of the Bowria U.B., was asked about it, he deposed that he had no concern with the informations of death.

To prove that Shivaram died after the election, the respondent No. 1 examined R.W. 9 Dhiren Kar. His evidence is that he lived in the same para with Sibaram and at a distance of 3 or 4 minutes walk from his house. He admitted the death of Shibaram but said that he died some 8 months ago in the month of Falgun last after the General Election. He appears to be very intimate with the family of Shibaram and his evidence could not be shaken by cross-examination.

In this state of the evidence I cannot find on the testimony of P.W. 13 that Shibaram and Sudhir died before the last General Election.

P.Ws. 14 and 15: Moni Mohan Jana and Sk. Badial Jamal Shah: P. W. 14 Moni Mohan Jana is a tax Collector of the Bowria U.B., residing in the village Boulkhali. He deposed that Pear Ali of Burikhali died in Aghrain or Pous last before the last General Election. Though Pear Ali lived in a different village—and the village in which he lived must be big (otherwise it would not have been divided into 2 parts). this witness, being a tax-Collector, may be said to be a competent witness to speak about Pear Ali's death—and as no sufficient cause could be shown for not accepting his evidence, I am prepared to believe him. The other witness, P.W. 15, Jamal, is a co-villager of Jabed Sk, living opposite to his house, and he deposed that Jabed died some 3 years ago. This witness deposed in a frank and straightforward manner—and I find no reason to disbelieve him either. After the close of his evidence, the petitioner filed two affidavits on 19th December 1961—one purported to be affirmed by Pear Ali's widow, Ayesa Khatun and the other by the brother of Jabedh Sk, Mobed Sk wherein it was stated that Pear Ali died in Magh, 1368, and Jabedh Sk died in the month of Magh or Falgun, three years ago.

Relying on the evidence of these two P.W.s 14 and 15 I find that the electors Pear Ali of Burikhali and Jabed Sk of Rameswar Bati died before the last General Election held on 19th February 1963.

Exhibit 3(f) shows that somebody had voted for Pear Ali and the number of the ballot paper issued to him was 155307. Similarly reading the marked Copy of the Electoral Roll, Ext. 3(e), with the Ballot Paper Account, Ext. 4(K), it is found that somebody had voted for Jabed Sk and the ballot paper No. 156313 was issued to him. These two ballot papers already marked Exs. III/13 and III/14 and kept in a sealed cover along with the ballot papers issued in the names of Laksman Porel, Shibram Ghosh and Sudhir Chowby as per my Order No. 28, dated 5th January 1963, are brought out from the sealed cover and kept in the file where the order exhibited ballot papers are kept. The cover with the 3 remaining ballot papers, issued against the names of the 3 aforesaid persons is then resealed.

On examining Exs. III/13 and III/14 I find the seals in them on the symbol of the lion. As the votes cast as per these ballot papers shall have to be rejected on account of the electors in whose names the ballot papers were issued having died before the date of the election, two votes have to be deducted from the total of the Respondent No. 1 —and the relative position of the Respondents will be as follows :

Respondent No. 1—17879.

Respondent No. 2—17868.

As regards the 4 admitted dead voters Hochen Box, Hachena Bibi, Isuf Ali and Majid Sk, the voter Majid Sk could not be traced. His particulars as given in both the petition and the written statement of the Respondent No. 1 are voter No. 563 in the Electoral Roll, Part 90. But in the marked Copy of the said Electoral Roll, Ext. 3(b), voter No. 563, is Monilal Naskar and not Majid Sheik. The ballot papers issued in the names of the remaining 3 dead voters Hochen Sk. Hochena Bibi and Isuf Ali are found from the marked copies of the Electoral Rolls, Exs. 3(a) and 3, read along with the corresponding Ballot Paper Account, Exts. 4(c), and D, to be 130435, 130317 and 136614. They have been marked Exs. III/9, III/8 and III/7 respectively. The seals in Exs. III/9 and III/8 are on the symbol of the lion and the seal on the Ex. III/7 is on the pair of bullocks with yoke on. As the votes cast as per these 3 ballot papers are all to be rejected, the Respondent No. 1 loses two votes and the respondent No. 2 one—and the net result is that Respondent No. 1 loses one vote as a result of the rejection of the votes of the admitted dead voters.

The final position of the Respondent thus comes to this :—

Respondent No. 1—17877.

Respondent No. 2—17867.

Respondent No. 3—1255.

Issues 5 to 7 and 12 : These issues are taken together.

In view of the above findings, it will be seen that even though there might have been improper reception and rejection of some votes and reception of some votes which are void, the petitioner has failed to show that the result of the election so far as the elected candidate, Respondent No. 1 is concerned has been materially affected thereby — and even after accepting the tendered votes which have been proved to be acceptable and rejecting the votes which have been proved to be void, Respondent No. 1 and not Respondent No. 2 is found to have actually received the majority of valid votes.

Hence the election of Respondent No. 1 cannot be found to be void or liable to be set aside—and Respondent No. 2 cannot be declared to be duly elected in his place.

These issues are accordingly answered as follows:

Issue No. 5—No.

Issue No. 6—No.

Issue No. 7—No.

Issue No. 12—No.

Issues 8 to 11 and 13 : These issues arise out of the petition of recrimination. In view of the above findings, it is not necessary to consider the said petition. The petition of recrimination was also not pressed at the time of trial by the Respondent No. 1 who filed the same.

In the result, the petition fails and it is accordingly ordered.

that the petition be dismissed on contest with costs to Respondent No. 1 which are assessed at Rs. 200.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an application under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act by Shri Rambali, Kesoram Cotton Mills Workers' Line, 42 Garden Reach Road, Room No. 999, Line No. 10, Calcutta-24, against Messrs. Kesoram Cotton Mills Ltd., 42 Garden Reach Road, Calcutta-24. (Case No. 10/33A/1962.) Present Address of the applicant: c/o Arun Sen, L/I Garden Reach Road, Calcutta-24.

Present for the applicant: Shri P. P. Pathak, Trade Unionist.

Present for the opposite party: Shri K. P. Mukherjee, Adviser.

This is an application under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act by Shri Rambali against Messrs. Kesoram Cotton Mills Ltd., arising out of G.O. No. 5867-I.R./IR/8L-14(c)/61, dated the 7th October 1961, for relief of reinstatement and payment of back wages, on the following allegations: The petitioner worked as a Weaver in A shift of the opposite party (employer) regularly and continuously with good record and became a member of the Provident Fund Institution four years ago. He was entitled to get permanent pass but this was denied to him on repeated demands in writing. Since 3rd January 1962 he was refused work and attendance card for January 1962 though he actually worked on 1st January 1962 and 2nd January 1962. He was told by the Factory Manager that as his brother was a leading member of the Garden Reach Textile Workers' Union, he would be treated like that. His letter addressed to the Factory Manager on 6th January 1962 and 13th January 1962 remained unanswered. On 17th January 1962 the petitioner wrote to the opposite party that he was being victimised and was being denied work without assignment of any reason, and that unless he was allowed to work within a week of the letter he would deem himself as wrongfully dismissed and would be compelled to raise industrial dispute. The action of the Opposite Party is mala fide, illegal, against all principles of natural justice, and in violation of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act.

The Opposite party's contention as per written statement is briefly this. The application under section 33A is untenable in law. There was no violation of section 33 and the employer has not made any change in the condition of service of the petitioner. He was working as a substitute weaver, not as a permanent one as wrongly alleged. The allegation is quite untrue that the Factory Manager told the petitioner that he would be treated badly on account of his brother's Union activity. On 22nd January 1962, on receipt of petitioner's letter, dated 17th January 1962, the employer intimated to him that by reason of his continued unauthorised absence since 3rd January 1962 his name was removed from the "Badli" list in terms of the Standing Orders. The allegation of victimisation and mala fide act on the part of the employer is totally false.

Decision

It is an admitted fact that the petitioner, Shri Rambali, first joined the opposite party mill as a "badli" weaver on 25th May 1957. The petitioner's case is that he worked regularly and continuously till 2nd January 1962 and since 3rd January 1962 he was denied work by way of victimisation. His further case is that he was entitled to get a permanent pass but this was refused. The employer contends that the petitioner was all along badli, not entitled to permanency, and ceased to report for work from 3rd January 1962. So, it is said, his name was ultimately removed from list of badli workers on 22nd January 1962.

It is not the case of the opposite party that a badli worker shall remain badli all along. The Factory Manager (O.P.W. 1 Shri Bijoy Bahadur Singh) says that seniority, efficiency and adaptability, etc., are taken into consideration in making a badli a permanent worker. Shri Hiralal Srivastava (O.P.W. 2), Weaving Master of A shift, says that of the badli workers of 1957 some become permanent and some have remained still badlis. He does not state any specific qualification for permanency of such workers. Besides the qualifications mentioned by the Factory Manager, there seem to be, as would appear hereafter, some other factors for which a badli worker may claim permanency.

Ordinarily, badli workers cannot claim permanency as of right and the employer is not bound to add to the labour force by employing badli workers as permanent ones even though they may have worked for several days (vide Factories and Labour Report, Vol. 5, July 1962, p. 27). But the instant case presents some special features and circumstances which appear to take away this case out of purview of the said principle. I am dealing with these particulars presently.

Usually and admittedly, the employees are given three kinds of duty cards. The whitish card is meant for badlis proper (substitutes), the yellowish card is given to those badlis who complete 240 days' work in a year, and the greenish card is issued to permanent workmen. It is an undisputed fact that Rambali got the benefit of the Provident Fund Scheme since May 1958 on completion of 240 days' work in one year since the time he joined his service as a badli. But he was not given the yellowish card as he was still made to rest content with the whitish card. He says in his deposition that prior to 2nd January 1962 he used to work for six days in a week. It is his unchallenged evidence. O.P.W. 2 Shri Hiralal Srivastav, the Weaving Master of shift A, says in his deposition that those who get yellowish cards get work for six days in a week, and would get lay off benefit if the Company is unable to given them works. Now, section 25C(1) of the Industrial Disputes Act provides that whenever a workman (other than a badli workman or a casual workman) whose name is borne on the Master Rolls and who has completed not less than one year of continuous service is laid off, he shall be paid by the employer for all days during which he was so laid off, except for such weekly holidays as may intervene, compensation equal to 15 per cent. of the total of the basic wages and D.A. that would have been payable to him had he not been so laid off. Thus the benefit of lay off is meant for a regular workman, not a badli or a casual employee. As in view of the evidence of O.P.W. 2, the concerned applicant Rambali would have been entitled to the lay off benefit, he is to be considered as a regular workman within the meaning of section 25C(1) of the Industrial Disputes Act. In the written statement of the opposite party employer it is admitted in paragraph 6 that Rambali got the provident fund benefit since May 1958 and also worked for 243 days in 1960 and 242½ days in 1961. Rambali says that in 1961 he worked for 240 days and got dues for annual leave and sick leave. In spite of all this, he was denied the yellowish card and permanency, although he appears to have sent letters on 6th January 1962 and 13th December 1961 (Exts. 1 and 2 respectively) in which he made these demands. The Factory Manager, O.P.W. 1; says that there was no occasion to receive letters like Exts. 1 and 2. But he admits having got the letter, dated 17th January 1962 (Ext. B), in which Rambali made almost self-same demands. It was in reply to Ext. B that the Company by its letter, dated 22nd January 1962 (Ext. A), intimated that Rambali's name was removed from the badli list on account of unauthorised absence since 3rd January 1962. In the circumstances, it is extremely difficult to believe that letters like Exts. 1 and 2 did not reach the employer at all. There is nothing to show that Rambali was called to duty in spite of such letters. Yet the employer struck off his name from the badli list on ground of his unauthorised absence. The employer has tried to make out a case that Rambali gave up the job from 3rd January 1961. This is denied by Rambali. His insistence on being made permanent would sufficiently indicate his willingness to continue his works and would suggest against the story of his giving up the job of his own accord. Under the Standing Orders a badli workman's name may be removed from the list of registered badlis for—

(i) any of the acts or omissions listed as misconduct in the Standing Orders;

(ii) failure to reach the standard of efficiency and conduct required by the job he does;

(iii) continued non-attendance or repeated absence when due for employment.

Clauses (i) and (ii) do not obviously apply in the present case. The employer appears to have applied clause (iii) and removed Rambali's name from the Register of Badlis for continued non-attendance. Here also no cause of repeated absence has been made out. By "continued non-attendance" the employer means to contend that Rambali was absent from 3rd January 1962 till 22nd January 1962 on which date the reply letter, Ext. A, was sent by the employer. The employer did not condescend to give reply to Ext. 2, dated 13th December 1961 and Ext. 1, dated 6th January 1962. It appears, therefore, that the employer's silence till 22nd January 1962 was purposeful in any how designing an occasion for making out a case of non-attendance on Rambali's part from 3rd January 1962, his name appearing in the Attendance Register till 2nd January 1962. In fact, as I can understand, Rambali was all along willing to do work, but he was not given work, though he was entitled to the benefits of a regular workman in the circumstances mentioned above. Thus, the apparent removal of his name from the badli list is in reality refusal of employment to a regular workman, or his discharge by way of punishment. That being so, I can unhesitatingly hold that the provision of section 33 was violated by the employer, and so the present application under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act is maintainable.

The reason for the action of the employer against Rambali is stated to be an act of victimisation on the part of the employer. Rambali says that when he approached for works, he was told that he would be treated like that as his brother Ram Raj who was the leader of the Union. The two witnesses of the employer even deny any knowledge about the applicant's brother's Trade Union activities. It appears from the record of proceedings in the Hon'ble Supreme Court in regard to the case of this employer versus Gangadhar and 29 other workmen, that Raja Ram, son of Deoki, was one of the concerned workmen in that case. The address and the father's name of Raja Ram and Rambali appear to be the same. From this it may fairly be taken that Rambali is the brother of Raja Ram, a previous victim, and that there might be some sort of intention on the part of the employer to act by way of victimisation against Rambali. This is neither improbable, nor far fetched.

In view of the above findings, I hold that the action taken by the employer opposite party against the petitioner Rambali was unjustified. It is, therefore, directed that the applicant be taken back into the service with continuity of service, and be paid all his back wages since the time of his punishment till the time of his reinstatement within a month from the date of publication of this award in the "Calcutta Gazette".

AWARD

The above dispute over the issues given in the order of reference and reproduced below was first referred to the First Labour Court by the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 6-I.R./IR/9L-55/57, dated the 2nd January 1957, and the same dispute was subsequently referred for adjudication to this Tribunal by the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 3861-I.R./IR/9L-30/59, dated the 23rd July 1960, in supersession of the said previous order of reference after the abolition of the said First Labour Court.

Issues

1. Whether the management is justified in refusing employment to the following workmen:

(a) Budhu of Chota Mangru Sirdar,

(b) Ropna of Etwa Sirdar, and

(c) Budhua alias Bandhana of Kancha Sirdar?

2. What relief by way of reinstatement and/or compensation are they entitled to?

The relevant case put forward by the Union on behalf of the concerned workers is briefly as follows: The concerned Union was formed in this tea estate in 1953 and since then the authorities of the tea estate had been trying to set up a rival Union by their trusted men, who constantly threatened and intimidated the workers for joining this Union, and their Union activities. In keeping with this attitude of the estate authorities, the Munshi of the tea estate deducted subscriptions for Congress Union at the time of weekly payment of wages on 14th January 1956 from the wages of the workers against their will and consent. On the next day, all the three concerned workers of this case went to the Munshi and demanded return of the subscriptions deducted from their wages by offering to return the receipts issued to them, but the Munshi refused to return the money taken by way of subscriptions. On the next day when these three workers reported for their duties, they were told by the Munshi that their work had been stopped. They approached the Manager and reported the whole matter to him, but the Manager supported the Munshi and confirmed that they would not be given any work. No written order for stoppage of their work was given to them. The workers then informed their Union and the Union made a representation of the Regional Labour Officer. In the meantime, one of the three aforesaid workers, Budhua alias Bandhana of Kancha Sirdar, was allowed to resume his work, but the other two workers were not allowed to work as before. Budhua alias Bandhana was then asked by the Munshi of the estate to give up all connection with this Union, but he refused and after this his work was again stopped by the Manager with effect from 13th March 1956 without any reason or justification whatsoever. On the representation earlier made to the Regional Labour Officer, the Labour Officer called a joint conference between the representatives of the tea estate and this Union. At first, no representative of the tea estate attended the conference, but finally there was a conference on 16th August 1956, which was attended by Shri Nalini Ranjan Ghosh, a Director and Legal Adviser of this Tea Company, and Shri Ghosh agreed to give work to these workers and an undertaking to this effect was given by the Assistant Secretary of the Tea Company, but when the workers went back to the garden for work on the basis of the agreement and undertaking, they were again refused work. After this, on or about the 20th August 1959, two of the concerned workers, Ropna and Budhuna alias Bandhana, were served with charge-sheets alleging that they had assaulted one Mithu Bhokta and his wife. The workers sent replies to the charge-sheets denying all the charges which were false, concocted and malicious. No enquiry was held regarding the charges after the workers submitted their replies and these two workers continued to be without work as before. The refusal of the estate authorities to allow all the three concerned workers to work in the garden in the aforesaid circumstances was without justification and it was nothing but a vindictive and mala fide action on the part of the authorities amounting to unfair labour practice and negation of all principles of natural justice. The three concerned workers are entitled to be employed in this tea estate and they are also entitled to compensation for the period during which they have been kept without work.

The Company has filed a written statement setting out its own case in respect of the three concerned workers and raising some general pleas. It has pleaded that the concerned Union has no function or activities in this tea estate, though it may function elsewhere, and this Union has been trying for some time past to infiltrate into this garden. Not more than a dozen workers of this garden are members of this Union out of a total labour strength of about 1,800. The majority of the labourers are members of the Rastriya Cha Mazdoor Congress. The estate authorities are not trying to set up a rival Union through their own trusted men and they never threatened or intimidated workers for their Union activities. It has denied the allegations in the written statement that there was deduction from the wages of these three workers and others by way of subscriptions for the other Union, the Rastriya Cha Mazdoor Congress, by the Munshi of the Estate on 14th January 1956, and that these three workers went to the Munshi for return of the money in exchange for the receipts granted to them and that the workers were told by the Munshi that they were not to work any more in the garden. It has also denied that the Manager of the garden at any time stopped the work of any of these workers. This Union made a fradulent and false complaint to the R.L.O. of Jalpaiguri, alleging that these three workers had been stopped from doing their work in the garden by the Munshi of the tea estate, and that some subscriptions had been forcibly realised from their wages by the Munshi. The Manager replied to this complaint, which was forwarded to him for comments, denying it in toto and informing the Labour Officer that two of these workers were involved in an attempt at outraging the modesty of one Budni Oraoni, an unmarried female worker of the garden, and the two workers involved were Budhu of Cholta Mangru Sirdar and Ropna of Etwa Sirdar. The concerned female worker, Budni Oraoni, submitted a written complaint to the Manager alleging that on 27th November 1955 the aforesaid two workers forcibly broke into her bed room at about 11 p.m. in order to outrage her modesty and when she raised a hue and cry on seeing them, some people from the adjoining huts rushed to her room and found the two workers there. The famale worker herself came to the Manager with the witnesses. The Manager told them to approach their Gram Panchayet in the matter. The matter was referred to the Gram Panchayet. The Panchayet held its sitting and examined witnesses and finally decided that the other labourers should not keep any connection with the said two workers, who should not join their work in the Garden any more. After this, the two concerned workers, Budhu and Ropna, refrained from joining their work in the garden either from a guilty conscience or on account of their social ostracism. The Manager did not take any proceedings against these two workers for the alleged incident in the hut of Budni Oraoni and no action was taken against them for the alleged offence by the Garden authorities. The Manager never stopped their work. They stopped their work of their own accord. Their names were kept in the rolls up to 31st December 1957, and they were continuously marked absent. The Company never gave any undertaking in writing at any conference called by the R.L.O. that these workers would be given work on their return to the Garden and it is not true that they were refused work when they came to the garden. The two workers, Ropna of Etwa Sirdar and Budhua alias Bandhana of Kancha Sirdar, were charge-sheeted for assault upon Mithu Bhokta, as stated in the written statement of the Union itself. The charge-sheets were dated 14th August 1957, and were sent by registered post and were duly served. After due enquiry regarding the charges, these two workers were properly dismissed. None of these two workers is, therefore, entitled to any relief in the present case.

Before going to the merits of the issue, I would first of all dispose of a preliminary objection raised on behalf of the Company against the maintainability of the present reference on the ground that it is not an industrial dispute and the concerned Union, Zilla Cha Bagan Workers' Union, is not competent to transform this dispute into an industrial dispute because it has practically no following in the garden and very few workers are members of this Union, most of them being members of Rastriya Cha Mazdoor Congress which is a Congress Union, while the concerned Union is a Communist Union. It has been pleaded in the written statement of the Company that this Union has practically no following or activity in this garden. The disputes relates to the alleged refusal of work to three concerned workers of this garden named in the issue. It is per se an individual dispute in respect of each of the three concerned workers. The concerned Union's case is that the dispute in respect of each worker has been transformed into an industrial dispute because the Union has taken up and sponsored the dispute. It is now well settled that when a Union which is not exclusively a Union of the particular industry concerned, takes up and sponsors a dispute which is per se an individual dispute, the dispute is not thereby transformed into an industrial dispute unless it is proved that quite a substantial or large number of workers of that particular industry are members of the Union and such workers are also interested in and have supported the dispute by their concerted demands on behalf of the concerned worker or workers. It must be proved that quite a substantial or large number of workers of the particular industry concerned are interested in the dispute either by themselves or through the Union which has been authorised to take up the dispute. Unfortunately, there is no satisfactory evidence to prove this position in the present case. Zilla Cha Bagan Workers' Union is not a Union exclusively confined to the workers of this garden, but it is a general Union of the tea garden workers of the district of Jalpaiguri. The evidence discloses that even if there are some workers of this garden who are members of this Union, their number is very small and negligible in comparison with the total number of workers, while the overwhelming majority of the workers of this Garden are members of Rastriya Cha Mazdoor Congress. The total number of workers in this garden is, according to the evidence on the record, a little over 1,000. P.W. 1 Budhu of Chota Mangru Sirdar, a concerned worker, has stated in his evidence that there are about 1,000 or 1,200 workers in this garden. O.P.W. 1 Kancha Sirdar, who is the President of Rastriya Cha Mazdoor Congress, has stated in his evidence that there are more than 1,000 members of his Union in this garden. O.P.W. 6 Shri Md. Hana, the Labour Officer of the Company, has stated in his evidence that almost all the workers of this garden are members of the Congress Union and there is no existence of the office of Zilla Cha Bagan Workers' Union in this garden and he cannot say whether any worker of this garden is a member of this Union. Exhibit A is the register of members of the Ristriya Cha Mazdoor Congress. The register shows that more than a thousand of the workers of this garden are members of this Union. Exhibit B is a counterfoil book of receipts for Union subscriptions. As against all this evidence regarding the total number of workers in this garden and the number of workers who are members of Rastriya Cha Mazdoor Congress, there is only the uncorroborated oral testimony of O.P.W. 4 Shri Parimal Mitra, Secretary of Zilla Cha Bagan Workers' Union, that according to his memory, about 525 workers of this Tea Estate were members of his Union in 1955 and 1956. He has not produced any document to prove the correct number of workers of this garden who are members of his Union, though he has admitted that they have their books and papers relating to their Union organisation in this tea estate. No reason has been assigned for non-production of these books and papers. The three concerned workers are of course members of Zilla Cha Bagan Workers' Union, which is a Communist Union. It is very important to note in this connection that P.W. 1 Shri Budhu of Chota Mangru Sirdar, has admitted in his evidence that there are about 1,000 or 1,200 workers in the garden and out of them, about 900 or 1,000 workers may be members of the Congress Union. This admission clearly supports the contrary evidence on this point on the side of the Company and points to the position that only a very negligible minority of workers are members of Zilla Cha Bagan Workers' Union. After considering the whole aforesaid evidence, I hold that a very few workers of this garden out of a total number of workers exceeding 1,000 are members of Zilla Cha Bagan Workers' Union and an overwhelming majority of the workers numbering a little over 1,000 are members of Rastriya Cha Mazdoor Congress. In view of this position, the sponsoring of this dispute by Zilla Cha Bagan Workers' Union cannot be interpreted as the sponsoring of the dispute by a substantial or a sufficiently large number of workers of this garden so as to convert this dispute into an industrial dispute. Not a single other worker of this tea estate has come forward to prove that he is interested in the dispute concerning these three workers and he is a member of Zilla Cha Bagan Workers' Union and he and a number of other workers similarly interested in the dispute moved or authorised Zilla Cha Bagan Workers' Union to take up or sponsor this dispute. According, I find that upon the facts proved, this Union is not competent to transform the individual dispute concerning each of these workmen into an industrial dispute and the individual dispute concerning each of these workmen has also not been transformed into an industrial dispute by the concerted demand on their behalf by a substantial or a sufficiently large number of workmen of this Tea Estate. The dispute concerning each of these workmen has, therefore, remained an individual dispute as it is per se and consequently, the dispute does not fall within the purview of the Industrial Disputes Act and is not referable under section 10 of the Act. The reference of the dispute is, therefore, not maintainable in law and it is without jurisdiction. The preliminary objection is, therefore, accepted.

The above decision of the preliminary objection will at once take away the jurisdiction of this Tribunal to adjudicate the dispute under reference. Still, I would go into the merits of the case and record my findings in regard to the facts concerning the merits in order to make the record complete.

I first take up the case of the first two workers, Budhu of Chota Mangru Sirdar and Ropna of Etwa Sirdar in so far as it concerns their alleged attempt at outraging the modesty of Budni Oraoni on the night of 27th November 1955 and their finally being found guilty by the Gram Panchayet on 14th January 1956 and their absenting themselves from duty since 14th January 1956 without in any way being dismissed or discharged by the tea garden authorities. The above facts have been alleged by the Company in reply to the Union's case that these two workers were not allowed to do any work from 14th January 1956 or 15th January 1956, because they demanded return of subscriptions for the Congress Union forcibly realised from their fortnightly wages paid on 14th January 1956. It is also alleged on behalf of these workers that the tea estate authorities were supporting the Congress Union and so there was forcible realisation of subscriptions for this Union from their wages. After considering the relevant evidence on the record, I find that the case put forward on behalf of these workers as the reason for refusing them work from 14th January 1956 or 15th January 1956 has not at all been established. There is no evidence to prove the alleged forcible realisation of subscriptions for the Congress Union from their wages on 14th January 1956, except the interested and uncorroborated testimonies of the two concerned workers, Budhu and Ropna. Not a single other worker of the garden has come forward to support this evidence. In the written statement filed on behalf of the Union, it is alleged that one Munshi of the Garden made forcible realisation of the subscriptions on 14th January 1956, but the name of this Munshi has nowhere been mentioned. In evidence, it is stated for the first time by the two concerned workers that Kancha Sirdar made the forcible realisation of subscriptions. O.P.W. 1 is this Kancha Sirdar. He is the Chaprasi of this garden. He has categorically denied the allegation that he forcibly realised subscriptions for the Union from the wages of these workers on 14th January 1956. Moreover, it has been satisfactorily proved by both oral and documentary evidence produced on behalf of the Company that there was no payment of fortnightly wages on 14th January 1956 and that the fortnightly wages for the period ending on 14th January 1956 was paid in the next week on or about 20th January 1956 after necessary calculations. O.P.W. 1 Kancha Sirdar has spoken about this in his evidence. O.P.W. 6 Shri Md. Hena, the Labour Officer, has also supported this position in his evidence and he is a very competent person to speak about this matter. The entry in the cash book, Ext. Q, shows that fortnightly wages for the period ending on 14th January 1956 were paid on 20th January 1956. There is absolutely no reason to disbelieve the aforesaid oral and documentary evidence produced on behalf of the Company. I hold upon a consideration of the entire evidence on this point that there was no payment of fortnightly wages to the workers of this garden on 14th January 1956, but there was payment of fortnightly wages up to 14th January 1956 on 20th January 1956 and there was no forcible deduction from the wages of these workers on account of subscriptions for the Congress Union at the time of payment of fortnightly wages. The Union's case on behalf of these two workers, therefore, totally fails. The fact remains that from 14th January 1956, these workers did not work in the garden any more. This is borne out by the entries in the attendance register, Exts. P and P(1). There is absolutely no reason to disbelieve the entries in the attendance register. The question would now arise whether their non-attendance continuously from 14th January 1956 was due to refusal of work to them by the Company or it was a case of their voluntarily withdrawing from work after the incident concerning Budni Oraoni and the Panchayet's decision against them regarding this occurrence. The basis of the Union's case that these workers were refused work from 14th January 1956 or 15th January 1956 because they had the audacity to demand return of subscriptions for the Congress Union forcibly realised from their wages on 14th January 1956 has not been established and so, it must fail, as already held above. With the fall of this basic case, the Union's case that these workers were refused work by the Company from 14th January 1956 or 15th January 1956 must also fail, because there would be no reason for such refusal of work to them by the Company. In fact, no other reason for refusal of work by the Company has at all been alleged. The Company has produced evidence in support of its case that they voluntarily left their work in the garden after the incident concerning Budni Oraoni and the Panchayet's decision against them regarding this occurrence. The occurrence is said to have taken place on the night of 27th November 1955. The evidence discloses that Budni Oraoni was an unmarried girl at that time and since then she was married and left the garden. Budni has not been produced for examination in this case and in my opinion, the aforesaid fact constitutes quite a sufficient explanation for her non-examination. O.P.W. 1 Kancha Sirdar, the Head Chaprasi of the garden, O.P.W. 2 Md. Ismail, the Night Chowkidar of the garden and O.P.W. 6, Md. Hena, the Labour Officer of the garden, have given evidence about relevant parts of the story falling within their knowledge. Md. Ismail, the Night Chowkidar, personally went to Budni's hut on hearing cries and actually saw Ropna gagging Budni and thereafter Budni came to the house of the Head Chaprasi, Kancha Sirdar accompanied by Ismail and others, and there made a statement that Budhu and Ropna had entered her hut and gagged her and outraged her modesty and then she was taken to the Manager's bungalow where she repeated the same story in presence of the Labour Officer, who was called by the Manager, and she submitted a written statement over her thumb impression to the Manager in presence of these persons. Exhibit C has been proved to be the written statement bearing the thumb impression of Budni. Exhibit C(1) is the Bengali translation of this statement. The further evidence is that the Manager advised that the matter should be referred to the Gram Panchayet and so, the matter was referred to the Panchayet and the Panchayet held its sitting on 14th January 1956 and decided that the charge against these two workers had been proved and it recorded a written decision and directed that these two workers should not be given any work any more. Exhibit D has been proved to be the written decision of the Panchayet and Ext. D(1) is its Bengali translation. I see no reason to disbelieve all the aforesaid evidence and I hold thereon that the Company's case in this respect has been proved. I am further satisfied that though after the decision of the Panchayet, the Company itself did not pass any order for stopping the work of these two workmen, they themselves gave up their work in the garden out of a feeling of shame on account of the Panchayet's decision and so, they ceased to come to work continuously from 15th January 1956, and their absence from work was duly noted in the attendance register. Their names were kept on the roll of labourers up to 31st December 1957, and during this long period, they never appeared and reported for work in the garden. The Company clearly indicated in its letter to the R.L.O., Jalpaiguri (Ext. 3), that a complaint had been made to the Manager against Budhu and Ropna regarding the outraging of the modesty of a female worker and the matter would be enquired into by a proper charge-sheet and till then no steps would be taken and they were free to work. This supports the position that the Company never stopped these two workers from doing their work in the garden because of the complaint against them about outraging the modesty of a female worker. In the above view of the relevant facts and circumstances, I hold that these two workers Budhu of Chota Mangru Sirdar and Ropna of Etwa Sirdar, voluntarily left their work in the garden by absenting themselves continuously from 15th January 1956 without in any way being stopped from doing their work by the Company and in this way, they voluntarily abandoned their services under the Company. It was, therefore, not a case of refusal of work by the Company to these two workmen but a case of voluntary abandonment of work by the workmen and as such, they are not entitled to any relief.

I now take up the case of the concerned workmen, Ropna of Etwa Sirdar and Budhua alias Bandhana of Kancha Sirdar, for their dismissal from service on the ground of their having assaulted Mithu Bhakta, another workman of the garden, on 29th July 1957. The Company's case is that a charge-sheet was issued to each of these two workmen in regard to their alleged assault upon Mithu Bhakta on 29th July 1957 and a fair and proper enquiry regarding the charge was held by the Garden authorities and as a result of the enquiry, both these workmen were found guilty of the charge and accordingly they were dismissed from service on the ground of gross misconduct. Exhibit I has been proved to be a copy of the written complaint by Mithu Bhakta regarding the assault upon him by the aforesaid two workmen and this complaint was made to the local police. The evidence is that when the assault began, Mithu Bhakta raised a hue and cry which brought several garden workmen to the spot and some of them saw the occurrence and thereafter, he was taken to the Manager before whom he narrated the occurrence and the Manager wanted a written statement from him and after the written statement was given, he was sent to the Garden Hospital for treatment wherefrom he came with a medical certificate which was produced before the Manager and thereafter, the Manager advised him to go to the police-station and lodge a complaint and accordingly, two copies of the complaint to be made to the police were written out by the Labour Officer and one copy was taken to the police-station and the other was kept with the Management and Ext. I is the copy that was kept with the Management. The written statement first submitted to the Manager has not of course been produced. The further evidence is that thereafter, two charge-sheets, Exts. L and L(1) were issued to these two workmen regarding the assault on Mithu Bhakta, but these workmen did not appear to file written statements by 21st August 1957, the date fixed for enquiry in the charge-sheets and on the date fixed for enquiry, they were called through the Chowkidar, but they refused to come and after this, they were given another opportunity for appearance by adjourning the enquiry to 17th September 1957, and information about this date was sent to them through the Chowkidar, but even then they did not appear for the enquiry on 17th September 1957 and in these circumstances, the enquiry was held on 17th September 1957 by the Manager and in this enquiry, the statements of Mithu Bhokta and his witnesses were recorded and thereafter the Manager wrote out his report finding both the workmen guilty of the charge and ordered their dismissal and pursuant to this order, letters of dismissal, dated 29th September 1957, were issued to them. The Labour Officer, O.P.W. 6 Shri Md. Hena, has given the above story in his evidence. The charge-sheets were issued by registered post. Budhua alias Bandhana accepted the charge-sheet, but the charge-sheet addressed to Ropna was returned with the report "Not found" (vide Exts. J and K). I will first deal with the question whether there was any fair and proper enquiry according to the principles of natural justice in respect of the charge-sheets issued to these two workmen. Admittedly, the enquiry was not held on the first date mentioned in the charge-sheets, and it was adjourned to some subsequent dates from time to time. There is no satisfactory evidence, however, to prove that notice of the subsequent dates were actually given to these two workmen. It is said that they were informed of the date through the Chowkidar, but the Chowkidar concerned has not been examined to prove this. The Labour Officer of the garden is not certainly competent to prove substantively that these workmen were really informed of the subsequent date by the Chowkidar. No written reply was submitted by any of them, but still it was incumbent upon the garden authorities to hold a domestic enquiry regarding the charge against these two workmen upon which they were to be dismissed. No satisfactory evidence has been produced before this Tribunal to prove that any ex parte enquiry even was really held. The Manager is said to have held the enquiry. He has not been examined. The explanation for this as given in the evidence is that he has left the garden and gone away to Pakistan. There is no reason to disbelieve this explanation. But there is absolutely no explanation for non-production of the recorded proceedings of the enquiry. The recorded proceedings have not certainly been taken away by the then Manager and the evidence of Mithu Bhokta (O.P.W. 3), Sher Bahadur (O.P.W. 4) and Maila Dorji (O.P.W. 5), the workmen who are said to have gone to Mithu Bhokta's house on hearing the hue and cry when he was assaulted, is that they gave evidence at the enquiry held by the Manager and the Manager recorded their evidence. This also the evidence of O.P.W. 6 Shri Md. Hena, the Labour Officer, who is said to have been present at the enquiry. But curiously enough, no written record of evidence taken at the enquiry has been produced and there is absolutely no explanation for this. Only the final report of the Manager has been produced. Exhibit M is that report. According to this report also, these witnesses were examined and their statements were recorded. The non-production of the recorded proceedings of the enquiry must raise a serious doubt about the reality and the bona fides of the enquiry and I hold on a consideration of all the aforesaid facts and circumstances that there was no real and bona fide enquiry regarding the charge-sheets against these two workmen and if there was an enquiry at all, it was merely a nominal enquiry and not in conformity with law and principles of natural justice. After this finding the dismissal of these two workmen in so far as it is based upon the alleged domestic enquiry cannot be sustained and the whole issue about the dismissal of these two workmen for the alleged misconduct arising out of their alleged assault on Mithu Bhokta becomes open and at large before the Tribunal and the Tribunal must independently go into the merits of the issue upon the evidence produced before it and decide for itself whether these two workmen were really guilty of such misconduct.

I now proceed to an independent examination of the question whether the dismissal of these two workmen was justified on the ground of alleged misconduct upon the evidence produced before this Tribunal. I have before me the direct evidence of O.P.W. 3 Mithu Bhokta about the assault upon him by these two workmen, supported by the eye-witness account of the occurrence as seen by O.P.W. 4 Sher Bahadur and O.P.W. 5 Maila Dorji, after they came to the place of occurrence on hearing the hue and cry raised by Mithu Bhokta. These three witnesses have given quite a full account of the occurrence as eye witnesses and their testimonies about the occurrence are substantially corroborative of each other without any material contradiction. I have been impressed by their testimonies and I see no reason to reject their evidence. Their evidence about the occurrence is also fully corroborated by the evidence of the Labour Officer, O.P.W. 6 Md. Hena, who was present at the Manager's office when Mithu Bhokta came there with the witnesses and made a statement about the assault upon him by these two workmen. The Labour Officer also saw injuries on his prson and the locations of the injuries as given by him tallies with the locations given by the witnesses. Exhibit H, the medical certificate, regarding the injuries found on the person of Mithu Bhokta on 29th July 1957 by the doctor of the Garden Hospital at 5-30 p.m. is also fully corroborative of the evidence of Mithu Bhokta and other witnesses. It is proved that the doctor who granted the certificate is dead. I have referred to the duplicate copy of the written complaint to the police made by Mithu Bhokta at the instance of the Manager (Ext. I) and the statements in this complaint also support the story given by Mithu Bhokta and his witnesses. Upon the aforesaid evidence considered as a whole, I hold that the Company's case in respect of the charge of assault by these two workmen upon Mithu Bhokta on 29th July 1957 has been satifactorily established and these two workmen did really assault Mithu Bhokta in his house in the garden on 29th July 1957. Such a conduct on the part of the two workmen was certainly subversive of discipline in the garden and as such, it certainly amounted to misconduct. For such a misconduct, dismissal cannot be said to be an improper and unjustified punishment. These two workmen were dismissed on the ground of such misconduct by the letters issued to them on 28th September 1957 [Exts. O and O(1)]. They must be held to have been properly and justifiably dismissed for their misconduct and I hold accordingly. This finding is sufficient to dispose of the separate case of these two workmen regarding their dismissal on the ground of assault upon a co-workman in the garden.

As I have found that Budhu of Chota Mangru Sirdar and Ropna of Etwa Sirdar voluntarily gave up their work in the garden from 15th January 1956. and they were not stopped from doing their work in the garden, and as I have further found that Ropna of Etwa Sirdar and Budhua alias Bandhana of Kancha Sirdar were properly and justifiably dismissed for a proved misconduct, none of these workmen is entitled to any relief in the present case. This is my decision on the merits of the issue.

As I have accepted the preliminary objection raised on behalf of the Company and have decided that the dispute under reference is an individual dispute and not an industrial dispute referable for adjudication under section 10, Industrial Disputes Act, my basic award is that the present reference is not maintainable in law and the Government acted without jurisdiction in making the reference and this Tribunal has no jurisdiction to adjudicate the dispute under reference. Along with this award, I have recorded above my decisions on the merits of the issue in order to make the record complete.

AWARD

After the service of usual notice on the parties both parties entered appearance and filed their respective written statements. On 18th January 1963, however, a petition was filed by the Learned Advocate for the Company showing that out of 16 workmen concerned in the present dispute, 14 had already settled their disputes with the Company out of Court and they had no further claim against the Company. Two of the workmen concerned, however, did not join the said petition and so I fixed the case on 31st January 1963 for hearing. On 28th January 1963, however, the other two workmen also filed a petition stating that they had already voluntarily settled their dispute with the Company and that they had no further claim against their employer. I have heard the representatives of both the parties in connection with these two petitions. It has been certified by the Union Executives that the signatures of the 16 workmen concerned are genuine and bona fide. I am satisfied that there have been a voluntary settlement between the parties and nothing is left for me for adjudication. Accordingly I direct that the two petitions filed in this connection be recorded and a "No-dispute" award be passed accordingly. The two petitions will form part of this award and they are marked as Annexures A and A(1) to this award.

This is my award.

AWARD

The above dispute over the issue given in the order or reference and reproduced below was referred for adjudication to this Tribunal by the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 1430-I.R.|IR|4L-16|62, dated 24th April 1962.

Issue

Whether the dismissal of Shri Rabindra Nath Mukherjee is justified? To what relief, if any, is he entitled?

The case was finally fixed for hearing on 1st March 1963. But long before that date, the parties appeared before the Tribunal on 28th January 1963 and the concerned workman Shri Rabindra Nath Mukherjee submitted a petition signed by himself and Sri Paritosh Mukherjee, Assistant Secretary of the concerned Union and also by Mirja Abdul Gani Begg, Secretary of the Asansol Bus Association. In that petition the workman stated that he had voluntarily settled the dispute under reference with the employer in respect of all his claims and he had no further claim including reinstatement against the employer and had also no further dispute with him. Shri A. Sarkar, Advocate for the employer, also signed the petition. After the petition was submitted I called all the signatories to it and questioned them. They all agreed that the dispute had been settled between the concerned workman and the employer and there was no further dispute between them. In these circumstances I consider it useless waste of time to keep the adjudication proceedings pending till the next date fixed for final hearing of the case and I further consider it proper and expedient to dispose of the reference by a no-dispute award on the basis of the petition filed on 28th January 1963. I am perfectly satisfied that the dispute has ceased to exist by amicable settlement as stated in the said petition.

In the result I make a no-dispute award in the case in terms of the petition filed before this Tribunal on 28th January 1963 and referred to above, a copy whereof is made a part of the award as an annexure.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Preference Shares (Regulation of Dividends) Act, 1960.

(2) It extends to the whole of India:

Provided that it shall not apply to the State of Jammu and Kashmir except to the extent to which the provisions of this Act relate to the regulation of dividends on preference shares of banking and insurance companies and financial corporations.

Definitions.

2. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

I of 1956. (a) "Companies Act" means the Companies Act, 1956;

II of 1922. (b) "company" means an Indian company as defined in clause (7A) of section 2 of the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922 and includes a company referred to in sub-clause (ii) of clause (5A) of the said section which has made arrangements for the declaration and payment of dividends within India in accordance with the rules made under the said Act;

(c) "preference share" means a share which having been issued and subscribed for before the 1st day of April, 1960, carries, as respects dividends, a preferential right to be paid a fixed amount or an amount calculated at a fixed rate;

II of 1922. (d) "previous year" has the same meaning as in the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922;

(e) "stipulated dividend", in relation to a preference share, means the fixed amount or the amount calculated at a fixed rate which the holder of such share has a preferential right to be paid as dividend;

(f) all other words and expressions used but not defined in this Act and defined in the Companies Act shall have the meanings respectively assigned to them in that Act.

Regulation of dividends on preference shares in certain cases.

3. (1) Where the stipulated dividend in respect of a preference share of a company—

(a) is specified to be free of income-tax and no deduction is made therefrom on account of the income-tax payable by the company, or

(b) was being paid before the 1st April, 1960, without any deduction therefrom on account of the income-tax payable by the company, notwithstanding the absence of any specification that the dividend would be free of income-tax, every such share shall, as respects dividends declared after the commencement of this Act, carry a preferential right to be paid without any deduction aforesaid such amount as would exceed the stipulated dividend by thirty per cent. thereof.

(2) Where the stipulated dividend in respect of a preference share of a company issued and subscribed for after the 31st March, 1959 is free of income-tax and the company, besides paying the stipulated dividend to the holder of such share, pays to Government on his behalf any sum on account of income-tax payable thereon, then, every such share shall, as respects dividends declared after the commencement of this Act, carry a preferential right to be paid free of income-tax such amount as together with the sum aforesaid would exceed the stipulated dividend by thirty per cent. thereof.

(3) Where the stipulated dividend in respect of a preference share of a company—

(a) is specified to be subject to income-tax and a deduction is made therefrom on account of the income-tax payable by the company, or

(b) was being paid before the 1st April, 1960, subject to a deduction therefrom on account of the income-tax payable by the company, notwithstanding the absence of any specification that the dividend would be subject to income-tax, then, every such share shall, as respects dividends declared after the commencement of this Act, carry a preferential right to be paid subject to the deduction aforesaid such amount as would exceed the stipulated dividend by eleven per cent. thereof.

(4) Where a company has in relation to a preference share declared,—

(a) after the 31st March, 1959, and before the 1st July, 1960, a dividend in respect of a previous year relevant to its assessment year 1960-61 or a subsequent assessment year, or

(b) after the 30th June, 1960, and before the commencement of this Act, a dividend in respect of any previous year, it shall declare, in respect of the said previous year, an additional dividend of such amount as, together with the dividend already declared, would exceed the stipulated dividend—

(i) by thirty per cent. of the stipulated dividend in the cases referred to in sub-section (1), or

(ii) by eleven per cent. of the stipulated dividend in the cases referred to in sub-section (3).

(5) For the purposes of sub-section (1), sub-section (3) and sub-section (4), any reference therein to the stipulated dividend shall, in respect of a preference share issued and subscribed for on or before the 31st March, 1959, be construed as a reference to the stipulated dividend as on that day.

(6) For the removal of doubts, it is hereby declared that any reference in this section to deduction made from a dividend "on account of the income-tax payable by the company" does not include any amount deducted by the company from that dividend under sub-section (3D) of section 18 of the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922. II of 1922.

Special provisions in relation to companies where a portion of their income is not chargable to income-tax.

4. Where any preference share has been issued by a company any portion of the profits and gains of which in respect of the relevant period is exempt from income-tax under the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922, by reason of such portion being agricultural income, then, for the purpose of the increase in the dividend in relation to any such preference share under the provisions of section 3, the increase of thirty per cent. or eleven per cent. referred to therein shall be taken to be such proportion of the said thirty per cent. or eleven per cent., as the case may be, as the total amount of the profits and gains of the company excluding the portion of the profits and gains which is so exempt in respect of the relevant period bears to the total amount of the profits and gains thereof in respect of that period. II of 1922.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section, "relevant period", in relation to the profits and gains of a company, shall mean—

(a) the previous years relevant to such of the three assessment years as immediately precede the assessment year ending on the 31st March, 1961, and in each of which the net result of the computation of profits and gains of the company has not been a loss or where there are only two such years, such two years, or where there is only one such year, such one year; or

(b) in any case where clause (a) is not applicable, the previous year relevant to the assessment year ending on the 31st March, 1961 or a subsequent assessment year immediately following thereafter in which the net result of the computation of profits and gains has not been a loss.

Over-riding effect of Act.

5. (1) The provisions of this Act shall have effect notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any law for the time being in force or in the memorandum or articles of a company or in any agreement between the company and its shareholders or in any resolution passed by the company in a general meeting or by its Board of directors.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, a company may, in the manner provided in section 106 of the Companies Act, increase the amount of dividend in respect of a preference share beyond the limit specified in section 3 or section 4 of this Act.

Act not to apply to participating preference dividends.

6. Nothing contained in this Act shall apply to such part of any dividend on preference shares as is referred to in clause (i) of the Explanation to sub-section (1) of section 85 of the Companies Act.

Power to make rules.

7. (1) The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules for carrying out the purposes of this Act

(2) Every rule made under this section shall be laid as soon as may be after it is made before each House of Parliament while it is in session for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session in which it is so laid or the session immediately following, both Houses agree in making any modification in the rule or both Houses agree that the rule should not be made, the rule shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be, so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule.
